

About The City

Called to Mother's Bedside.

C. R. Hibbard, one of the large property owners of the valley, started for Nebraska last evening in answer to a message stating that his mother was not expected to live. He received the telegram a few minutes too late to catch the train yesterday morning. Mr. Hibbard's many friends here hope that his mother may recover her health and save him that bitterness of all griefs—parting with mother.

Still Believes in the Grande Ronde.

W. L. Fugate of Walla Walla was here yesterday on business and made the Observer a short visit. Twenty years ago Mr. Fugate lived in this valley and was forced to leave on account of his family's health. He has never lost sight of the splendid resources here, however, and announced yesterday that he was a thorough Grande Ronde advocate. It is quite probable that the Fugate family may locate here permanently soon.

Exaris and String Here.

Exaris, the standard bred and registered horse purchased by M. K. West, and the entire string which Mr. West acquired at the recent Portland sale, arrived from Walla Walla this morning. Exaris has a very enviable record and reputation as a sire. The animal will be seen at the Union horse show.

Postponed on Account of Stock Show.

The C. W. B. M., which was to meet Friday with Mrs. R. W. Logan, will postpone its meeting until a week from that day on account of the Union Stock show. Most of the ladies want to join the big La Grande excursion.

For Those Who Want the Finest, we make the Kind Which Can Be Set Close to the Eyes Without Touching the Lashes.

OUR EXPERIENCE IN FITTING, GRINDING, AND MAKING LENSES is certainly worth something, but we do not charge that way for it.
