SOCIETY

Repeated twangings of Cupid's uncertain arrow string has marked the beginning of June, 1910, and if marriages continue through the month of weddings the way they have commenced, extensive and vast, indeed, will be the winged youngster's victories. The recital Tuesday gave a variety to social affairs, however, but in this instance and the Elks' party Tuesday night, alone, is there any particular variation from pre-nuptial or wedding social function.

The week commenced with a shower—kitchen utensils being the characterization—in honor of Miss Lulu Gulling's coming marriage when Miss Florence McCall entertained the La Jaunesse club and a few gentlemen friends at the McCall home, 1403 N avenue last Monday. It was in the nature of a surprise, the regular

Monday evening sewing club turning itself into a party pure and simple before the evening was over. Numerous oddities and conveniences in the line of kitchen utensils were "showered" at the June bride. The dining room, where later in the evening a delicious luncheon was served, was decorated tastily. Bleeding hearts formed the center piece. Place cards were of a unique sort, drawings of kitchen utensils characterizing each one. The menu card included:

Crab Salad Deviled Olive Sandwiches Strawberry Sherbet

Cakes Coffee

Those who were seated at the table were:

Misses Etta Foley, Ruth Bush, Lulu Gulling, Ethel Gulling, Allene Gulling, Reno; Marjorie McCall and Mrs. A. W. Nelson; Messrs. Archie Bacon, Frank C. Conners, Oscar Jackson, Roscoe Doane, Wm. Frances, H. M. Bay and A. W. Nelson.

Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Thursday evening, entertained eight lady friends at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Lulu Gulling who next week is to become a June bride. Pink and white prevailed throughout in decoration and arrangement of dishes at the light luncheon served. Syringas and wild roses, dotted at frequent intervals with pink candles, formed the dining room decorations and the table was supplied with a center piece bed of syringas with large candelabras to which were attached pink ribbon streamers leading to the respective place cards. Luncheon included:

Shrimp salad, Cheese Sandwiches, Deviled Olives, Fruit Cocktail, White Cakes, Coffee, Mints.

Music supplemented the suitable parlor games and Cupid tests—Miss Foley winning honors in the latter diversion. Miss Allene Gulling of Reno, Nev., and Miss Etta Foley rendered pleasing vocal numbers. The guests were: Misses Lulu Gulling, Ruth Bush, Ethel Gulling, Etta Foley, Florence McCall, Marjorie McCall and Allene Gulling, of Reno.

Last Thursday evening, H. M. Ray, who is to be married next week, was a guest of honor at a stag spread at the Model, at which a three course luncheon was served. Those partaking of the toothsome viands were:
