The W. C. T. U. held an interesting Mothers' meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Gelbel, Thursday afternoon. Papers were read on the subjects of "Home Making" and "The Relation of Family Life to National Life" and different phases of home and child life were discussed. The meeting was very instructive and helpful. Cake and ice cream were served.

At the business session plans were formulated for W. C. T. U. day at the Chautauqua.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. F. E. Gray, 1104 M Ave.

On Wednesday, June 8th, there will be solemnized at St. Peter's Episcopal church, the marriage of Miss Eva Elizabeth Neill, daughter of Mrs. Nellie Neill, 1104 Penn Ave., to Mr. John R. Martin, of Soldier, Idaho.

A beautiful home wedding took place Thursday evening, June 1, at eight o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Ellsworth, 2502 N. Ash street, when Miss Bernyce A. Ellsworth was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Leo Forsythe of Enterprise, Oregon, Rev. W. H. Gibson officiating. The young people are justly popular; Miss Ellsworth being one of the charming young ladies of La Grande, who is known and appreciated for her genuine worth; Mr. Forsythe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Forsythe, of Enterprise, Oregon and one of the highly honored and successful young men of that enterprising city.

Miss Maggie Coleman acted as bride's attendant and Walter L. Parker as the groom's best man. The Ellsworth home was tastefully decorated in pink and white. Cupid's figure with bow and arrow and the sweetheart shot through were everywhere in evidence. He told his own story of love's triumphs. The wedding supper was a three course meal of rare and abundant supply and was daintily served. The guests were a few chosen friends of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe and daughter of Enterprise. After a few days spent among friends in La Grande the young couple return to Enterprise to reside.

Maxwell Wins

Thrills followed thrills as speeding automobiles shot around the course of the Ingleside Race Course, on April 24th, in the second and final day events of the successful meet promoted by the members of Islam Temple of the Mystic Shrine.

The honors of the day were divided between Barney Oldfield, with his 200 horsepower Benz machine, and C. O. King, with his Maxwell 30 horsepower stock car. Oldfield lowered his previous record of one mile to 51 5-6, which is a new coast record for the circular track. With the exception of this performance, Oldfield had to take second place in the list of racing honors, as the world's champion met defeat in both the five and fifteen mile handicap events, and in both races King and his Maxwell were the victors. In fact, King proved the surprise of the meet, driving all of his races with much judgment and taking the turns with his car as close to the fence as did Oldfield. In the five mile handicap, Oldfield drove his Knox racer to the utmost, but the handicap was too strong and he could not get the lead away from King. Not only in the handicap events did King and his Maxwell prove stars of the first order, but in one of the first events of the day, the five mile race for cars costing from $1200 to $1600, which was one of the best matches of the meet.

The time for the five mile handicap was as follows: Maxwell, King, 4.40.30; Oakland, Nelson, 4.48.25; Chalmers, West, 4.49.30; Auto Car, finished fourth, and the Knox car, Barney Oldfield driving, fifth.

In the event number eight, ten miles free-for-all handicap, King and his Maxwell again were the winners, the Maxwell's time being 8.19.30.
