

WISE TALKS
By The
OFFICE BOY

Smile and the world smiles with you;
"Knock" and you go alone;
For the cheerful grin
Will let you in
Where the kicker is never known.
Growl and the way looks dreary,
Laugh and the path is bright;
For the welcome smile
Brings sunshine, while
A frown shuts out the light.

The gospel of good things is smiles. Ain't it the truth? There's absolutely nothing like 'em. Haven't you felt sorter blue and solemnly and out of sorts generally, and have some fellow with a big jovial face wreathed in smiles come along and jar the "blues" you had into the middle of next week? Of course you have. Then get busy and do a little smiling yourself. It's one of the habits that don't hurt anybody. Old Mr. Long Face is never welcome at Success's house parties, and Mr. Grouch is bounced before desert is served, while Miss Smile is much sought after by all those that want to make an impression with success.

It's easy for a man to smile if he wears the right sort of clothes and he can't draw any bum duds in this fashion bazar. If you ever think you have you can bring the pack back and we'll shuffle till you're satisfied. You know we guarantee you a fair deal every pop. Did you get a new straw?
