

WISE TALKS
By The
OFFICE BOY

A young man who is particular about his washing, the other day wrote a note to his laundry and one to his sweetheart, and by a strange fatality, put the wrong address on each envelope and sent them off. The young lady read, "If you tumble up my shirt bosom any more, as you did last time, I will go somewhere else." Speaking of shirts, we'd like to tumble up our spring shirts a little showing you through. Gee! but we have the sure swell shirts this season. Our head shirt man has certainly come through with the swellest bunch of shirts that ever came over the mountains. When we sell you shirts at retail they never have to be re-tailed again, for they are cut long, full and roomy. We have put in a good many years at the business and know all there is to know about shirts. It is awfully satisfactory to buy a garment like a shirt from a man who knows, a man who will measure you and give you the correct sleeve length, etc. Try us for shirts.

Lease of Life For Wolter.
New York, June 10.—Albert Wolter, the youthful degenerate who enticed pretty little Ruth Wheeler to his rooms and murdered her, and who was tried and convicted of the crime in record-breaking time, has secured a new lease of life. Wolter was to have been electrocuted today, but an appeal filed by his attorneys has served as a stay of execution of the death sentence. The Court of Appeals adjourns next week and there is little likelihood of a decision before autumn, and it may be delayed until early next year. Wolter is now confined in Sing Sing prison.

Nine Berries Fill a Box.

Fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism is simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment. All that is needed to afford relief is the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. Give it a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the quick relief which it affords.

Dr. F. A. Cook's Birthday.

Washington, June 10.—He was born in Sullivan county, New York, June 10, 1865, but Dr. Frederick A. Cook is going to do the Missouri stunt, and "show 'em." He is said to be preparing a second expedition to the Pole to get the records which Peary would not let Harry Whitney bring back, ditto, the eskimaux who went with him farthest north. Now nothing could be more on the square than that those denouncing the Brooklyn doctor will kindly be bound over to the peace until his return.

Unlike most men talked about, the things that books have printed about Dr. Cook are the best known. Mention Cook's name and immediately there comes to mind his fight with Peary, or rather Peary's fight against him, and the torrent of abuse that has been directed against the mild-mannered explorer-physician. The doctor's first experience as an Arctic explorer was gained in 1891, when he went north as surgeon of the Peary expedition. Subsequently he acted as surgeon to the Belgium Antarctic expedition in 1897. Dr. Cook started on his expedition to the Far North in the summer of 1907. He wintered on the Greenland coast, and according to his report, discovered the Pole in April, 1908. He did not reach civilization until a year later when the announcement of his discovery created a world-wide sensation. Shortly after, Mr. Peary, arriving from the Far North, heard of Dr. Cook's report and issued the series of telegrams denouncing Cook, which marked the beginning of a controversy which it is hoped the forthcoming trip of Dr. Cook will forever set at rest.
