RAIN A GREAT BENEFIT

LITTLE HAY DOWN BUT CROPS GREATLY AIDED.

General Drizzling Rain Spells Good Crops Over Union County.

Soaking considerable alfalfa, but given added thrift and life to small grains, beets and the like, the rain of yesterday afternoon and evening has left Union county a green and thrifty community. The rain was timely as farmers were beginning to feel some alarm at the future of the small grain crops, which for some time past has not been irrigated from on high. Now, however, the crops are able to withstand a long draught again as yesterday's rain fell at the opportune moment.

Every section of the valley was included in the rain zone, though in some places it is true, the showers were not as heavy as might be required to saturate the soil properly.

The Scrap Book

Yes, He Knew the Time. A quiet, bashful sort of a young fellow was making a call on a Capitol Hill girl one evening not so very long ago when her father came into the parlor with his watch in his hand. It was about half past 9 o'clock. At the moment the young man was standing on a chair, straightening a picture over the piano. The girl had asked him to fix it. As he turned the old gentleman, a gruff, stout fellow, said:

"DO YOU KNOW WHAT TIME IT IS?" "Young man, do you know what time it is?" The bashful youth got off the chair nervously. "Yes, sir," he replied. "I was just going."

He went into the hall without any delay and took his hat and coat. The girl's father followed him. As the caller reached for the doorknob the old gentleman again asked him if he knew what time it was. "Yes, sir," was the youth's reply. "Good night!" And he shot from the house without waiting to put his coat on.

How a Juror Was Lost. In a southern county of Missouri years ago, when the form of questioning was slightly different than now, much trouble was experienced in getting a jury in a murder trial. Finally an old fellow answered every question satisfactorily—he had no prejudices.

SATISFIED WITH THE INSPECTION. He was opposed to capital punishment and was generally a valuable find. Then the prosecutor said solemnly: "Juror, look upon the prisoner. Prisoner, look upon the juror." The old man adjusted his spectacles and peered at the prisoner for a full minute. Then, turning to the judge, as though fully satisfied with the inspection, he said: "Judge, durn me if I don't believe he's guilty."—Kansas City Star.
