AFFAIRS OF BANK NOW WHERE LESS EXPERIENCE NEEDED.

Department Head From Washington
Coming Here to Make Arrangements.

James C. Rankin, the man in charge of inactive national banks in the United States, is on his way to La Grande to make arrangements for further administration of the affairs of the Farmers and Traders National bank in this city. Receiver Walter Niedner, the government official sent here at the time of the failure some nineteen months ago, is needed in other fields and he will be removed from La Grande where the bank's affairs are reaching the point where a less expensive or experienced official will do fully as well. Mr. Niedner has not been informed just what the comptroller intends to do, but it is very likely that a local agent will be appointed to look after routine matters in the receiver's office, and turn the legal phases of the situation over to the bank's counsel, Wm. Ramsey. It is not certain that this procedure will be carried out, and neither is it certain that Mr. Niedner will be sent elsewhere until later in the fall when legal struggles now pending are at an end.

Then, too, it is possible that all books and accounts will be taken from La Grande to Washington and the affairs administered from the seat of government.

Mr. and Mrs. Niedner have been their home in La Grande for nineteen months and the result of the stay here has been businesslike and efficient management of the bank's affairs by Mr. Niedner and incidentally the formation of many warm friends. "Of all the small towns that I have lived in, La Grande is far superior to them all," enthusiastically exclaimed Mr. Niedner this morning.

"The type of citizenship here, the good fellowship and congenial conditions commend themselves to any stranger who comes to La Grande."

With all these possible courses to pursue, it remains for the arrival of Mr. Rankin to decide fully what system will be followed in cleaning up the odds and ends of the institution preparatory to writing final on everything pertaining to it.

Can't Drive Japs Out.

Everett, Wash., June 17.—Superior Judge Black today refused an application for an injunction prayed for by the United States Lumber company to prevent the people of Warrington from driving Japanese from the town. Thirty Japanese were run out recently after they had been employed by the company. The judge said there was no emergency excuse. The people of the town have so far been victorious.

NEW YORK MAGG.

was astonished by the news that the Colonel had canceled his engagement to pay his respects to the Pope by reason of what he considered the undue restrictions that Mgr. Kennedy, acting as the Pope's representative, sought to place upon his movements while in Rome. Mgr. Kennedy cautioned the Colonel against making himself persona non grata by addressing or in other ways openly encouraging the work of the Methodist church in Rome. His precaution was taken as a result of the unpleasantness growing out of the cancellation of former Vice President Fairbank's engagement to visit the Vatican because of his address to the Methodists. When Mgr. Kennedy submitted his "terms" Roosevelt immediately telegraphed his declination and canceled the engagement.

There was a tremendous hubbub and valiant effort was made by third parties to patch up the breach, but Roosevelt stood firm. By a striking show of diplomacy, however, he emerged from the embarrassment with encomiums from Catholics and Protestants alike. Throughout it all Roosevelt made it plain that he meant no offense either to the Pope or to Catholics generally. The whole affair was finally charged to a lack of tact on the part of Papal Secretary of State Cardinal Merry del Val and it was rumored that he would lose his official relation with the Vatican as a result of the incident.

Of the hunt in Africa Roosevelt's own report to the Smithsonian Institution, sent after his arrival at Khartoum and at the end of the hunt, gives a good idea of what was accomplished. In this he says:

"I have the honor to report that the Smithsonian African expedition, which was entrusted to my charge, has now completed its work. Full reports will be made later by the three naturalists Messrs. Mearns, Keller and Loring. I send his preliminary statement to summarize what has been done: the figures are substantially accurate, but may have to be changed slightly in the final reports.

"We landed in Mombasa on April 21, 1909, and reached Khartoum on March 14, 1910. Landings were joined by Messrs. R. J. Cunningham and Leslie J. Tarlton, the former was with us throughout our entire trip, the latter until we left East Africa and both worked as zealously and efficiently for the expedition as any other member thereof.

"We spent eight months in British East Africa. We collected carefully in various portions of the Athi and Kapiti plains, in the Sotik and round Lake Nivasha. Messrs. Mearns and Loring made a thorough biological survey of M. Kenia, while the rest of the party skirted its western base, went to and up the Cuaso Myero and later visited the Guas Ngishu region and both sides of the Rift Valley. Messrs. Kermit Roosevelt and Tarlton went to the Lalkipla Plateau and Lake Kerrinston and Dr. Mearns and Kermit Roosevelt made separate trips

FIX SENTENCE ON JULY 10TH

SCRIBER NOT TO ENJOY FREEDOM UNTIL THAT DATE.

Notice Given That Appeal Will Not Be Taken by Scriber.

Portland, June 17.—Judge Robert Bean of the United States court today granted an extension on the freedom which J. W. Scriber, the convicted bank wrecker of La Grande, has been enjoying since his conviction. The freedom extends until July 10, when United States District Attorney McCourt will have returned. In that time Scriber will put his business affairs in shape to take his prison sentence immediately after July 10.

This action by the court followed notice from Attorney C. W. Fulton that Scriber would not appeal.

to the coast region near Mombasa. On December 19 the expedition left East Africa, crossed Uganda and went down the White Nile.

"North of Wadela we stopped and spent over three weeks in the Lado, and from Gondokoro Kermit Roosevelt and I again crossed into the Lado, spending eight or ten days in the neighborhood of Rejaf.

"In Gondokoro we were met by the steamer which the Sidar, with great courtesy, had put at our disposal. In the way to Khartoum we made collections in Lake No. and on the Bahr el Ghazel and Bar el Zeraf. We owe our warmest thanks for the generous courtesy shown us and the aid freely given us, not only by the Sidar, but by all the British officials in East Africa, Uganda, and the Sudan, and by the Belgian officials in the Lado; and this, of course, means that we are also indebted to the home governments of Egypt and Belgium.
