IT PAYS IN BOLLARS AND CENTS.

To be true to the Grande Ronde valley and her institutions is decidedly essential if development and higher priced real estate are desired.

The Androscoggia The man who carries many accounts; with Colonel Roosevelt on the bridge sped up the Upper Bay, and, following close along the Jersey side of the Hudson river, proceeded to the stake boat, anchored off 19th street.

All the plers along the Jersey and New York side of the river were decorated and packed with people to cheer Roosevelt, while every boat that was passed on the river sounded its welcome. It was a continuous ovation along the entire river front, and Colonel Roosevelt was compelled, to lift his hat many times and bow to the commuters on the passing ferry boats who manned the rails and

Two hundred feet from the entrance to the building of Department of Bocks and Ferries, on the western seal wall of the battery, had been erected the stand on which Colonel Roosevelt was to be received by Mayor Gaynor. On this stand were gathered 250 of the most notable men of America, including senators, cabinet members, governors of states, representatives and professional and busi-

About in stand were 200 massive pillars, gaily decorated and joined by garlands of flowers. In the space they thus marked off stood 3,000 distinguished guests. Near the reception stand was a private stand erected for Mrs. Roosevelt and her personal friends. This box was loaded with rare roses and orchids. The great Whitehall building, the customs house and the other buildings facing Battery Park were festooned with decorations. The park was so packed with spectators that the police were compelled to close the sidestreets and prevent the entry of others, fearing that in a panic hundreds might be precipitated over the seawall into the Bay.

Nearly every person in the great assembly wore the official badge, a silvered coin, bearing the profile of the ex-president in bas-relief. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alsop, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Miss Alexander, Mrs. Alexander, Kermit, Ethel, Archie and Quentin Roosevelt and Miss I. S. Hagner.

As soon as Mrs. Roosevelt and her party had taken seats, Colonel Roosevelt and the Reception committee advanced over the platform to the receiving stand. This 200 feet walk was raised six feet in the air, so that Colonel Roosevelt passed above the heads of the assembled thousands, giving them all a good look at him.
