ROOSEVELT AT HOME.

who was waiting for him with outstretched hands. Colonel Roosevelt was given the noisiest vocal greeting it had ever been his fortune to hear. From massed bands there came the roar of music; from the thousands of throats came one hurrah that lasted for several minutes.

Among those on the reception stand were Governor H. B. Quincy, of New Hampshire; Governor Franklin Fort, of New Jersey; U. S. Senator F. P. Flint, of California; Dr. Charles P. Nell, Commissioner of Labor; Lawrence O. Murray, Comptroller of the Currency; Sen. H. C. Lodge, of Massachusetts; Congressman Hamilton Fish, Henry M. Goldfogle, William Sulzer, Herbert Parsons, W. W. Cocks, and C. V. Fornes, of New York; Congressman John W. Langley, of Kentucky; Edward R. O'Malley, attorney general of New York; A. H. Cheney, superintendent of banks of New York; Gifford Pinchot, former chief Forester; Dr. L. S. Rowe, of the American Academy of Political Science; Gen. Luke Wright, ex-secretary of war; Fire Commissioner W. Caldo, Booker T. Washington and others equally prominent.

In addition to the reception committee which escorted the president to the stand where Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Secretary of the Navy Meyer and Capt. Archibald Butt, the president's personal aides, the latter bearing a personal letter to Colonel Roosevelt from his successor in office.

As soon as the terrific cheering ceased sufficiently for his voice to be heard, Mayor Gaynor, in the name of the people of New York and speaking as a representative of the American nation, welcomed Colonel Roosevelt to his home.

Colonel Roosevelt responded extemporaneously and was given close attention, though few of the thousands could hear a word he said.

LIVE TUSSELE OVER TESTIMONY.

John Grant Who Talked With Scotchman Recently on The Stand.

John Grant's testimony for the defense in the Morrison escheat case was the bone for contention among the attorneys representing the principals in the case this afternoon. Grant was in Scotland not long ago and talked with an official there, whose testimony was introduced by deposition by the state previously. The deposition and the conversation between Grant and the man who gave the deposition do not agree. Legal struggles popped up at every turn and but little other evidence was introduced during the afternoon. The defense has been able to get but little of Grant's testimony on the records.

Alleged Grocer's Combine.

Seattle, June 18.—Jobet & Hibbler and R. J. Oliver, jobbers, have filed a suit against the so-called Grocers' combine of this city for $50,000. The defendants are the local condensed milk company, and others. The jobbers say they were blacklisted because they did not join the combine.

Pretty near bumper crops, all over the state, is the prospect.
