PLAN BIG CELEBRATION.

Baker City has a Program that Will
Please Audiences July 4.

Baker City is preparing for a 4th of July celebration of more than passing worth, according to information written by A. S. Ashley, publicity manager for the Baker City Commercial club. Arrangements for running extra trains to Baker City from Homestead via Huntington, and from North Powder have been completed. Speaking of the celebration Mr. Ashley says:

"The Baker Commercial Club is working hard to make the big Fourth of July celebration a great success. There will be horse races, ball games, open air platform dancing free, parades, speaking, horrors, music all the time by the Baker City band, amusements day and night for both old and young and in fact everything which goes to making a grand Fourth of July. The flying machine will be the special feature on the Fourth and Fifth and should prove a great sight to those who have never witnessed the man-bird."

JUNKET STARTS MONDAY.

Monday and Tuesday to be Devoted to
Touring Union County

Next Monday and Tuesday will be banner days to every man and woman in La Grande who can find time to leave the city and their duties for a two-days junket through Union County. The Chautauqua board will head the delegation and a caravan of automobiles will start from La Grande at 8 o'clock Monday morning, intending to encompass the valley before returning. The prime motive of the trip is to advertise the Chautauqua. All who can possibly get away will be welcome to join the caravan. Unions sent out a delegation of forty recently, and La Grande should double that easily.

Hot Lake, Union and Cove will be visited on Monday. The following day will see the boosters headed for Summerville, then to Elgin, Allice, Imbler and finally at Island City. The junket is entirely to advertise the Chautauqua and spread interest in the coming attraction. Several ladies who are members of the board will make the trip and many more are planning on going. The junket will receive co-operation on the part of the automobile owners of the city, and a jolly good trip is promised to all who participate in the journey. Plans for this trip were laid last evening at a meeting of the Chautauqua committee.
