

Maxwell Wins

Thrills followed thrills as speeding automobiles shot around the course of the Ingleside Race Course, on April 24th, in the second and final day events of the successful meet promoted by the members of Islam Temple of the Mystic Shrine.

The honors of the day were divided between Barney Oldfield, with his 200 horsepower Benz machine, and C. O. King, with his Maxwell 30 horsepower stock car. Oldfield lowered his previous record of one mile to 51 5-8, which is a new coast record for the circular track. With the exception of this performance, Oldfield had to take second place in the list of racing honors, as the world's champion met defeat in both the five and fifteen mile handicap events, and in both races King and his Maxwell were the victors. In fact, King proved the surprise of the meet, driving all of his races with much judgment and taking the turns with his car as close to the fence as did Oldfield. In the five mile handicap, Oldfield drove his Knox racer to the utmost, but the handicap was too strong and he could not get the lead away from King. Not only in the handicap events did King and his Maxwell prove stars of the first order, but in one of the first events of the day, the five mile race for cars costing from $1200 to $1600, which was one of the best matches of the meet.

The time for the five mile handicap was as follows: Maxwell, King, 4.40.30; Oakland, Nelson, 4.48.25; Chalmers, West, 4.49.30; Auto Car, finished fourth, and the Knox car, Barney Oldfield driving, fifth. In the event number eight, ten miles free-for-all handicap, King and his Maxwell again were the winners, the Maxwell's time being 8.19.30.

SOCIETY

Mr. J. F. Hutchinson and Miss Beyrl Sherman, both of Union, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride's father in Union, Monday morning, June 20, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Theodore Sharp, of the M. E. church. The bride and groom took the morning train for Portland, accompanied by Miss Vera Nodine, and will be at home in Union, Oregon, after July 15th.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hutchinson of Union and is one of the successful and prosperous young men of the place. The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. William Sherman, of this city, and both bride and groom number their friends by the score, each and every one of whom wish them the greatest possible enjoyment of the new life. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson will make their home at the Hutchinson ranch just west of Union.—Union Republican.

La Jaunesse club members and gentlemen friends were entertained last Wednesday evening by Mrs. Fred Kiddle at the Kiddle home at Island City. The trip to the suburb was made by carryalls. Mrs. Kiddle entertained her guests with competitive games at which Miss Ruth Bush "seized" prizes. The hostess served a dainty luncheon during the course of the evening, and while it was yet Wednesday evening the crowd of young people had taken their departure, loudly praising the hospitality of the hostess. Club members and their friends who attended were Mesdames H. M. Bay and A. W. Nelson; Misses Marjorie McCall, Ruth Bush, Etta Foley and Irene Murphy; Messrs. Frank Connors, C. B. Clark, H. M. Bay, Oscar Jackson, Wm. Francis and A. W. Nelson; Miss Aline Gulling, of Reno, Nev., and Clyde Kiddle were also guests.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hart, at Hilgard, Sunday morning at seven o'clock, when their daughter, Caroline Vira, became the bride of Mr. Frank Rechlin of Henderson, Minnesota. The impressive ceremony of the Episcopal church was performed by Rev. Upton H. Gibbs of La Grande. The bride was gowned in a white lingerie dress and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The decorations were wild poppies and many other wild flowers and greens, syringas predominating. After the wedding breakfast the bride and groom left for a few weeks trip to points of interest in California. They will be at home in La Grande after August first.

Last Monday evening saw a very delightful dinner party at the Lloyd Scriber home, 406 Main street, when a sumptuous dinner was served by members of the "Newlywed" ladies afternoon sewing club to husbands of the membership. A dinner of several courses demonstrated that not all talent in the club runs to needle and thimble. The new and commodious home was decorated tastily and cut glass and silver added to the beauty of the table. The guests present were Messrs and Mesdames Lloyd Scriber, B. W. Noyes, Frank Bay, Chester Hanson, Cecil Brown, H. M. Bay, H. T. Shelley, A. W. Nelson and Miss Aline Gulling of Reno, Nevada.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. J. A. Whitby, 1501 1-2 Sixth street, last Thursday afternoon. A very enjoyable and interesting meeting was held. Refreshments followed the regular business session. At the annual election of officers the following were chosen: President, Mrs. Geo. H. Currey; vice-president, Mrs. J. W. Knowles; secretary, Mrs. C. P. Atwood; treasurer, Mrs. J. B. Wade; corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. G. Fritta; mite box secretary, Mrs. Joe Palmer; secretary of literature, Mrs. D. E. Cox.

The last lodge meeting for the summer of the Eastern Star, Hope Chapter No. 13, was held last Wednesday evening and the occasion was marked with initiation and a delicious banquet. Mrs. Jennie Rinehart, the grand worth matron, was present, and took an active part in the informal program. The banquet was one of those affairs which the Eastern Star is so adept at arranging and the evening was a very pleasant one indeed.

The Vesper Choir of the Episcopal church was pleasantly entertained Thursday evening at the J. A. Russell home, 1802 Third street. The occasion was very informal. Parlor games, refreshments and plenty of jollity constituted the program. Much interest is taken in the organization and under Mrs. Carlock's instruction the score of youngsters are becoming very proficient.

Last Wednesday evening a large crowd attended the band dance given by the La Grande band. The music was exceptionally fine and cries of "more like them" were heard on every side.

UNION MILLS TO START.

Woolen Mill People Inspect the Plant At Union, Oregon.

President F. J. Bailey, secretary A. Z. Burgess and Superintendent B. A. Churchill, of the Union Woolen Mill company, have been in this city this week arranging for the starting of the woolen mills, which they expect to do as soon as the plant can be placed in shape and wool secured in sufficient quantities to warrant beginning work.

The mill has been examined and necessary repairs noted. These will be sent for at once and will be installed as soon as they arrive, and all possible effort made to start the mill at the earliest day possible.—Union Republican.

Another Farm Sold.

L. D. McMasters has purchased the Clara J. Cellor farm in High Valley from the administrator, R. E. Smith. This is another fine farm that will no longer be on the market. One by one the bargains in real estate are disappearing.—Union Scout.
