CHILDERS TAKES OVER TEAM

LEASES GROUNDS AND WILL BE FINANCIAL BACKER.

Lincoln Grounds Leased for the Year by Wallace Childers.

Wallace Childers today became the owner of a lease on the Lincoln baseball park and assumed the financial support of the local pennant chasers. Mr. Childers will depend on public support for the salary of two men, Pitcher "Heck" McInnis being one of them, but the other players will divide proceeds from each game and if the crowd is small, their cut will be correspondingly little.

Childers has the acquaintance of baseball circles and will do much to keep the present winning streak the team has fallen into. It also assures his presence on the local infield, another feature in the case. However, it is certain that there will be good crowds at all games, for the four teams in the league are now playing a remarkable game for amateurs and it is worth anyone's money to see any club in the league at work.

CARETAKER AT THE PARK

Will Make His Permanent Abode at Park—Power of Police.

C. M. Riddle, the caretaker at Riverside Park has made the park his permanent abode and will be in a position to give close attention to the welfare of the place. In addition he has been given police powers and will wear the policeman's badge so that at any time, he will be empowered to make arrests should the occasion arise.

"A Young Wife" Pleasing.

The Ethel Tucker Stock company presented an entirely different style of bill last night at the Airdome, when "A Young Wife" a four act comedy drama was given. While there is a beautiful love story in the bill, the comedy running through the piece keeps laughter and tears alternating. Mr. C. M. DeVere as Horace Greengage Dobbins (they call him "Hod" for short) was simply irresistible—even undertaker were seen to smile. And in the pathetic scenes a hardware dealer used his handkerchief with telling effect. So there must be something in the show

Who the Kuhns Are.

The Kuhn-Californian project whose advertisement appears in this issue is controlled by J. S. and W. S. Kuhn, prominent and wealthy bankers of Pittsburg, Penn., the same people who so successfully developed over 400,000 acres in Southern Idaho. Their Californian project consists of 20,000 acres in the great Sacramento valley and is one of the greatest irrigation projects ever attempted. Seeing is believing. Investigate and be convinced.
