Enterprise, June 27.—(Special)—Enterprise and Joseph played a one to nothing game here yesterday. Enterprise winning by superior pitching and fielding. French on third put up a game that ranked with the best in the country and Blyou struck out fourteen men, against five by Browne. The narrow score represents fairly well the intense excitement that prevailed, and the game has been classed as the best between the two teams thus far. By bunching hits, Enterprise managed to squeeze one over. The score R H E.
