

Laurelhurst

The Addition with Character
 Laurelhurst Values will Advance 50 per cent to 100 per cent within a Year.

Present prices are 50 per cent too low in comparison with what is being asked for lots in other sections of Portland not so well improved, or restricted and much farther out from town. Laurelhurst is close in and is served by four different car lines. Investigate this property. Get acquainted with our terms and prices. Call on our representative in your city and he will be glad to give you further information on this property.

...A handsomely illustrated booklet on Portland, in two colors—an official map of the entire city—and a booklet on "Thirty Reasons Why" the careful investor is more safeguarded by an investment in Laurelhurst than in any other residence district of Portland.

FARMERS TO MEET.

Baker County Farmers Plan a Big Meeting at Haines

A big meeting of the farmers' union of Baker County is to be held at Haines Thursday when State President F. A. Sikes of Milton will be present to address the gathering. Mr Sikes will arrive on the early train Thursday morning and will spend the forenoon visiting with ranchers who come in, relates the Baker City Herald.

In the afternoon, beginning at one o'clock an open meeting will be held at which time Mr. Sikes will address the ranchers. A short program is being prepared, which will include an address of welcome by Mayor O'Bryant of Haines and a talk by A. V. Swift, president of the Baker county union. All ranchers are urged to attend at that time, as the meeting is one of importance.

More Cement Walks

The La Grande Iron Works front is being supplied with a cement walk, completing the improvement from Adams to Washington.
