UNION TEAM TO PLAY HERE

TWO GAMES SLATED FOR LOCAL ATTRACTIONS.

July Fourth and Fifth will See Union Squad Lineup Against Locals

Union, with a team recruited out of the debris of the disbanded team and strengthened with three new players, will tie up with the local pennant chasers on July fourth and fifth at the Lincoln grounds. Elgin comes on Sunday for a regular league game but the team must return to participate in a game with Cove at Elgin on the afternoon of July fourth, leaving the proposed game with La Grande that day open to other teams. Union has recovered from its blowup and is now in good trim.

Other midweek games are contemplated, among them being one with Baker City and one with Huntington.

Prominent Attorney Ill.

Colonel William F. Butcher, for years one of the leading lawyers of Eastern Oregon, if not in the entire state, a man who is known and respected throughout the entire country, lies at his home this afternoon, not expected to survive the night.

For several years Col Butcher has been failing and repeated efforts to restore him to his physical and mental strength have proved unavailing.
Yesterday he lost entire control of his faculties and lapsed into a state of unconsciousness that still continues. Friends and members of the ailing man's family were at the bedside last night and say that it is only the powerful frame of the dying man that has kept the spark of life fluttering thus long.

Col. Butcher has been a resident of Baker City and Baker county since 1888 when as a young man he came here from Athens where he had been practising law. From his entrance into Baker his rise as a legal light of prominence was marked, and in the course of his more than twenty years practise in this county he figured in most of the important litigation that came from Eastern Oregon.

But it was not in purely legal work alone that Mr. Butcher's fame rested.
He was a leading figure always in fraternal orders and attained the honorable position of Past Worshipful Grand Master of A. F. and A. M. He also early became prominent in business projects of importance to the community figuring in the organization of such large enterprises as municipal gas and electric plants that preceded the present lighting corporations.

Colonel Butcher is 52 years of age —Baker City Herald.
