NEW STARS NOW AT CHAUTAUQUA

INITIAL WEEK OF INITIAL CHAUTAUQUA GIVES WAY TO THE CONCLUDING PROGRAM.

LAST THREE DAYS STRONG

Entire New Set of Entertainers Take Charge at the Chautauqua This Morning and New Faces will Appear Regularly from Now on to Close—First Week of First Chautauqua Encouraging to the Entire City.

Three days hence and the initial Chautauqua of all Eastern Oregon will have become a matter of history, but these last three days are to be filled with morsels of real richness. Today saw a new galaxy of stars on the Chautauqua boards for the first time, as the principals of last week have left for other places. Knowing that nothing but high-class attractions are slated, a large crowd is expected tonight when Edward Brush, the magician, gives his wonders of mysteryland. The other classes of the morning are progressing very satisfactorily and words of praise are heard coming to the management for the skill and teaching powers of the leaders in each of the departments.

Rev. Redfern, the Boise student of the Bible, will make his concluding address of a series of instructive discourses tomorrow, he being called away one day before the close. His address yesterday afternoon was a strong feature.

Lovers of music, the mysterious, comic burlesque, and a program that brightens and uplifts will gloat in the program that is to conclude the Chautauqua Wednesday night. The last three days' program follow:

People are asking the Chautauqua management as to H. V. Adams, the lecturer, who is to appear at the Chautauqua grounds during the last few days of the event. Answering, the management says:

"Entertainment at Chautauqua gatherings is always in order. Everyone enjoys the magician, the music, the humor, and all that educates or entertains its legitimate place in the program of the assembly. But the concrete essence of all Chautauqua assemblies is the well-seasoned, clear thinking lecturer who has made a life study of his subject and who comes not as an untried man, but as one who has made good in every date that he has filled. The Grande Ronde Chautauqua assembly, in presenting H. V. Adams to the public, feels that splendid assurance of being able to introduce a man whose ability is of the best, whose success has been founded purely on his merit, and who will give everyone something to think of that will be of lasting benefit.

"Mr. Adams will talk on two subjects during the assembly. His "Grapes of Gold" has received the highest praise from the press that it is possible to give to a lecturer, and when he delivers, "The House of Changing Dimensions" all will agree that he will have reached the acme of human intelligence and enlightenment in a story set to words that are easily understood. His lecture bears a stamp of individuality and do not bear the smack of stereotyped phrases that have been clinging to the lecture platform for years. His style is refreshing as a balmy breeze from off the Grande Ronde valley and his manner is equal that of any Chesterfield.

"No lecturer now on the public platform stands higher with the people, for what he has to say is not a repetition, but fresh, new, crisp ideas of the kind that stick and anyone after hearing Mr. Adams will be pleased to state to his friends that they have enjoyed one of the best talks possible to hear and have been aided in forming conclusions on life's problems.

METHODISTS IN COURT WAR

PROMINENT BISHOP MAY BE SUBJECT TO CHARGES.

Charges of Insubordination Likely to Follow Kansas Trouble.

Kansas City Mo., July 11.—Bishop E. R. Hendrix of this city, a leader in the councils of southern Methodism, may be charged with insubordination and tried before a committee of elders as a result of the deliberations today of the College of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Reports from Tennessee, the center of the warfare, threatens to cause a serious split in the ranks of the followers of Wesley in Dixie, state that the bishops are determined to carry the fight to a finish. The United States Supreme Court will finally have to settle the dispute, which grew out of a controversy over the ownership and control of Vanderbilt University at Nashville.

It is expected that Chancellor J. H. Kirkland, of Vanderbilt University, will be removed from his office by the Methodist College of bishops, and nineteen members of the board of trustees of the University will be ejected from their trusteeship for insubordination and defiance of the church.

A lawsuit will be brought in the federal court, to enforce the rights of ownership and control of the property by the Methodist Church South, and to free the present trustees elected at the recent general conference at Asheville, N. C. This is the situation in the controversy that has raged around the university for the past five years.

Bishop Hendrix is the president of the Board of Trustees. At the recent general conference the church went on record by practically unanimous vote, holding that the university belongs in fee simple to the Methodists of the south, and instructed the College of Bishops, of which Bishop Hendrix is a member, to take all legal steps to enforce this claim and the rights of the church in the institution.

When the board of trustees met, it rejected three trustees that the church had elected to fill vacancies, and tabled a resolution that affirmed the ownership of the church. Bishop Hendrix was with the majority in both votes, and this constitutes the sum and substance of his offending.

LOEB DISCUSSED MILLIONS MISS FOR GOVERNOR FIGHT FILMS

COLLECTOR IS CONFERRING WITH PRESIDENT TAFT TODAY ON SUBJECT.

A CONFERENCE TUESDAY

While Friends Assert that Loeb Does not Want the Nomination to Succeed Hughes, his Boom is Generally Discussed, Following Conference with Taft Today at Beverly—Activities Await Tuesday's Conference.

Beverly, July 11.—William Loeb, collector of port at New York, is visiting President Taft today. It is generally believed he is representing Roosevelt and that he will carry a message to the Colonel from Taft, after the conference. There is much speculation regarding the Roosevelt message.

It is believed Taft's reply will be an outline of his plans for the coming campaign. Some believed Loeb to have gone to get Taft's endorsement to Loeb's gubernatorial boom, and that may be this is Roosevelt's mysterious mission. Loeb's friends assert, however, that he does not want the nomination.

Important Conference Tomorrow

Oyster Bay, July 11.—Governor Hughes visits Colonel Roosevelt tomorrow. When the conference is over, it is believed Roosevelt will be ready to play a leading part in New York politics, and also campaign for the control of the Republican state convention when it convenes. It is expected that Hughes will talk of his efforts to secure a reform in primary legislation. It is believed Roosevelt, who favors it, will try to force a primary plank through the state convention.

EDICT ISSUED BY FILM COMPANIES THAT CLUBS ALONE CAN SEE PICTURES

ROUSING RECEPTION GIVEN

Many Millions in America and Other Countries will Not See Moving Pictures of the Fight—Reception Tendered Johnson on his Arrival in New York is Magnificent—Jeffries On Fighting Expedition.

New York, July 11.—Owners of moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight, have doffed their hat to public opinion. The pictures will not be displayed in public place, at least not by the American picture company. "We have refused large offers from New York roof gardens and vaudeville houses," said Vice-President Blackton, "but we decided the younger generation should not be allowed to see the films. Therefore reels will be available only for clubs and stage parties."

It was intimated this action was taken to prevent a passage of laws making the exhibition of pictures a crime.

Great Mass Miss Pictures.

Boston, July 11.—Twenty-five million people have already been prevented from seeing the Jeffries-Johnson fight, according to Secretary Shaw of the Christian Endeavor. According to Shaw, opposition to the pictures made it impossible for films to be shown to nine millions in Maine, Texas, Georgia, Virginia and the District of Columbia. He estimates forty millions in American cities won't see the films, while millions in countries outside the United States, will miss the exhibition.

New York, July 11.—As the time for the arrival of Jack Johnson drew near today, 16,000 negroes from San Juan Hill the black belt district, swarmed to the Grand Central station. A reception committee waited in the corridors. The waiting blacks were doomed to remain on tenter hooks as the train from Chicago was three hours late. One hundred patrolmen were sent to the station at train time, and reserves are held in readiness for a hurry call. One hundred automobiles, decorated, stood waiting. In them were seated the upper crust of New York's darkey population. Johnson will be in the hand of his admirers throughout the day. He makes his first appearance at Hammerstein's tonight, and will be paid $3,000 weekly.

Jeff on Fishing Trip.

Los Angeles, July 11.—Jeffries starts this afternoon for Catalina Island for a fishing trip. When he returns he may have something definite to announce regarding a return engagement with Johnson. Jeff's right eye is troubling him much and is still discolored, but his sight is improving.

Cooling Off in La Grande.

J. W. Bush, the Pendleton creamery manager, came over from Pendleton yesterday to enjoy the cool and refreshing breezes. He reports the weather very warm in the wheat town.

FEAR ANARCHIST OUTRAGES

GUARDS PROTECT DELEGATES TO NEW WORLD CONGRESS.

Argentine Police Will Avoid Another Fatal Bomb Explosion.

Buenos Ayres, July 11.—Guarded by hundreds of police and detectives, to prevent anarchist demonstrations, the fourth International Conference of the American States today began the consideration of momentous problems affecting the welfare, peace and prosperity of all the republics of the New World.

Since the anarchist outrage of last month, when six persons were fatally injured by bombs exploded in the great national theatre, the finest in the world, the authorities of Argentina have carried on a strenuous campaign against the agitators. Many have been arrested and all suspected persons are under close police surveillance, lest the city and nation be disgraced by some untoward incident or outbreak of violence during the presence here of the distinguished delegates to the Pan-American congress.

Fights between the police and the anarchists in the capital of the Argentine Republic has been frequent; and bombs have been thrown and the city has been declared under martial control several times during the past few years. In 1908 a bomb was thrown at President Alcora as he was driving through the streets. A few months later another was buried at his wife. Both had narrow escapes from death. Falcon, chief of police, and his secretary, Dr. Lardegan, were killed with a bomb on November 14 1909. Twenty persons were seriously injured in a bomb explosion on the street in May, 1909.

FIRE IN IDAHO.

Great District in Northern Idaho Completely Burned Over.

Wallace, Ida., July 11.—After causing the destruction of lumber valued at half a million, fires in the Coeur D'Alene national forest and Hine Creek, are reported controlled today. Settler of Hine Creek, and fourteen rangers, with others, fought fire for three days and are still battling. Smaller fires are reported in the Idaho Mountains.

BLAMED MAYOR FOR LYNCHING

GOVERNOR HARMON CALLS MAYOR ATHERTON TO TASK FOR RECENT RIOT

SHERIFF BLAMED LIKEWISE

Lynching of Detective in Newark Recently Blamed to Officials who Failed to Do Their Duty—Mayor is Suspended and Sheriff will be Dealt With Later, Says the Governor—Detective First Killed Citizen.

Columbus, July 11.—Governor Harmon announced today he would Suspend Mayor Atherton of Newark for gross neglect of duty, and failure to prevent the lynching of Detective Etherington a few days ago. Notice will be served on the mayor immediately. The governor has requested the signature of five who were responsible to the charges of neglect of duty, against Sheriff Linn, also.

Sheriff Blamed, Too.

The suspension of Mayor Atherton by Governor Harmon for failure to protect and deliver Etherington from lynching at Newark, was intimated early today and that Harmon is convinced that if the sheriff and mayor had done their duty, no body would have been lynched. During the governor's visit to Newark, the mayor said he did not realize the gravity of the situation until the mob began storming the jail, and it was too late to call the troops. The governor says he soon will give out an official statement.

The lynching followed a raid on an alleged blind pig by anti-saloon forces and the detective shot the proprietor during a fight between the two, the detective claiming, before he was hung to a trolley pole, that he had shot in self-defense.

Milton Youth is Shot.

Milton, Ore., July 11.—While enroute from Milton with a party of friends to the mountains last evening, Fred Williams was accidentally shot and is now lying at the home of his uncle in Crockett in a very serious condition.

The young man was riding in a cart and was carrying a loaded shotgun. In some manner the gun fell from his cart and was discharged, the shot entering the left side just above the breast, entirely shattering the collar bone which had to be removed. The shot narrowly missed the big artery in the neck, which would have resulted in instant death. Several shot were removed from the back of the head, Dr. C. W. Thomas and Dr. E. E. Denton attending the patient. Unless complications set in the physicians have every hope of the young man's recovery.

Royalty Happy Again.

Spokane, July 11.—After a strange and tragic series of adventures, Lord and Lady Sholto Douglass and son and daughter-in-law, are for a time staying peacefully at Creston, B. C. Lady Douglass left the city last Saturday despondent, because she believed her husband was trying to steal her son. She escaped from a local hospital.

Draw Special Jury.

A panel of special jurors to hear the liquor cases when the adjourned term of circuit court convenes, was drawn today, publicly. The men will be summoned to appear as tallsmen when the long string of alleged bootlegging cases come up.

Chicago May Strike, Too.

Chicago, July 11.—Members of the Garment Workers' union are today investigating the report that New York work is being sent to this city for completion due to the workers' strike there. If it proves true, a general walkout will follow here.

FORTUNE TELLER'S STORY TRUE

Los Angeles, July 11.—Strange disappearance of Miss Charlott Hitchcock, following the prediction that she would meet her death in the sea, and the discovery of clothes in the bath house at Venice, is responsible for the belief of the parents today that the girl is drowned. She disappeared Friday. Near the clothing was found a magazine on which her name was penciled. In the magazine was a note addressed to a friend in which she said she intended swimming to a buoy off the beach to win a $10 bet. A fortune teller said the body would not be recovered.

GERMANY OPPOSES U. S. POLICY

Washington, July 11.—It is believed that German opposition to the United States' foreign policy may show itself by interference in Nicaragua, following receipt of a letter from the Kaiser to Madrid. The letter virtually recognizes Madrid's government, although he knew the United States holds Madrid was not elected rightfully. The Kaiser's letter says the Kaiser hopes the best relation will continue to exist between Germany and Nicaragua, and congratulates Madrid upon his election.

PASSENGERS SAVED FROM DEATH

St. Louis, July 11.—The steamer Girardeau lies wrecked in the Mississippi river today while 125 passengers were landed safely at Chester, Illinois. The vessel went down yesterday. No news was received until today when passengers landed. It is generally believed the steamer was overloaded. It is reported she struck a sunken barge. Passengers were taken of in lifeboats after the panic.

PURCHASED DESIRABLE LOT.

H. C. Rinehart has Faith in Laurelhurst's Future.

Returning from Portland where he had been for several days on business, H. C. Rinehart stated to his friends that he had purchased one of the choice lots in Laurelhurst addition. His lot is number 3 in block 117, and is located just across the boulevard from the new $30,000 home of C. K. Henry, which is said to be one of the finest homes in Portland. Mr. Rinehart has faith in the addition and says it is the best piece of property he could find in any of the residence districts of the metropolis.

Ten Deaths in New York.

New York, July 11.—Intense heat continues throughout the city today, though the temperature is lowering gradually. Ten deaths have been reported since this morning.
