FIGHT FILMS IN ARGUE RIPARIAN MUCH DOUBT LETIGATION

LOCAL THEATRE MANAGERS UN-CERTAIN ABOUT FILMS

If They Should be Turned Loose in West, Will Come Here Soon.

It is doubtful if La Grande, will see the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures.
Judging from news items from the seat of war, Manager B. M. Sherwood, of the Isis, is of the opinion that the films may never be sent out to the Western states at all, on account of the concerted action brought against them in the east. It is definitely stated that the Eastern theatres are not to see the films, but that decree does not cover the western states.

In the event that the films are turned loose in the West, it will require about three weeks before any of them reach La Grande. At this time the local theatre has not been apprised officially by the film makers as to what is to be done with the films in Oregon, Washington, and other Northwestern states.

His First Train Ride.

During the early hours of Sunday morning a long and lank native boarded Frisco train No. 104 for his first ride on the cars, his destination being Kansas City. He was decidedly nervous, but was determined not to show it and attempted to cultivate an air of familiarity with his surroundings.
He sought a position in the middle of the chair car, placed his grip on the floor and, standing stiffly, braced himself against the side of one of the plush chairs.

"Won't you have a seat, sir?" asked the porter.

"Nope," the young man answered.
"Dad cuts m' hair, an' I shave m'self."

ATTORNEYS GO TO ENTERPRISE TO ARGUE BEFORE COURT

North Powder Water Case Needs an Immediate Settlement.

Arguments for a temporary injunction in the North Powder water suit, where waters of the Powder river are being disputed by nearly a dozen people, all told; will be made before Circuit Judge Knowles at Enterprise, at once, to expedite the situation which is holding the North Powder people in suspense. A half dozen men seek a temporary injunction restraining another group of men from using water from the Powder river at a certain point, and the time for hearing was set yesterday, but as the court is in Enterprise, the hearing could not be held.

This morning Attorney T. H. Crawford and Attorney C. E. Cochran, council for the plaintiffs and defendants, respectively, went to Enterprise, where they will lay their arguments before the court in an effort to get a speedy settlement, of a temporary sort, regarding the riparian rights of the parties in question.
