Major Designs Under Fire.

Washington, July 14.—Mayor Frank Del Carrington, U. S. A., today was given notice of his retirement by the war department. This closes one of the most remarkable cases on army records. In 1903 Garrington served as captain in the Philippines. He was accused of misappropriating funds. He was presumed guilty until proven innocent. Carrington was convicted, and sentenced to prison. He appealed to the United States supreme court which presumed him innocent until proved guilty. This reversed the lower court. On retrial Carrington was found innocent.

New York Canal Bonds Sale.

Albany, July 14.—State Comptroller Clark Williams today placed on sale 44,000 four per cent canal improvement bonds. Mr. Williams, in signing the bonds, made a record for State Controllers, affixing his signature to 2,100 bonds in one day.

Stuyvesant Fish, Jr., Weds.

New York, July 14.—A smart wedding at Garrison-on-Hudson today was that of Miss Mildred Dick to Stuyvesant Fish, Jr. Mr. Fish is the son of Stuyvesant Fish, ex-president of the Illinois Central Railroad and well known financier.

Lash for Wife Beaters.

Everett, Wash., July 14.—At the summer meeting of the Washington State Sheriff's Association, opening here today, several new laws will probably be recommended as desirable in increasing the efficiency of sheriffs in dealing with criminals.

A resolution favoring the establishment of whipping posts for wife beaters and assaultants of women passed upon favorably at the last session, will likely again meet the approval of the sheriffs. The sheriffs also favor the rigid enforcement of a state curfew law.

New York Bankers.

Cooperstown, N. Y., July 14.—Many millions of gold are represented by the delegates to the annual convention of the New York States Bankers' Association, which opened today at the O-Te-Sa-Ga hotel on Otsego Lake. A special train brought many of the prominent financiers of New York City and Buffalo, Syracuse, Albany, Rochester and smaller cities are also represented.

The program of the convention besides the business sessions, includes a trip on a special steamer this afternoon to points of interest on the lake, the annual banquet this evening, a trolley ride to Richfield Springs on Friday afternoon, and a ball on Friday evening. Several men prominent in the financial world will address the convention at its business sessions and at the banquet. Golf and tennis tournaments will be held for the amusement of the women relatives and friends of the delegates.

Golf in Massachusetts.

Boston, July 14.—Leading amateur golfers are rubbing elbows with professionals today at the Essex Country Club, Manchester, where play in the Massachusetts open championship was commenced this morning. Alex Ross has won the Massachusetts open for four years in succession.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union county.

Ida Benton, plaintiff, vs. Bert Benton, defendant.

To Bert Benton, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and in case you fail to so answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the dissolution of the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant, and for her costs and disbursements, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem proper.

This summons is published in the La Grande Weekly Observer, by order of the Hon. J. W. Knowles, judge of the Circuit Court of Union county, the state of Oregon, for Union county, which order is dated on the 30th day of June, 1910, and requires said summons to be published once each week for six successive weeks. The date of the first publication of this summons is the 7th day of July, 1910.

EUGENE ASHWILL, Attorney for the Plaintiff.
