ALL WHITEFISH IS SECOND CRIME THREATENED BY FIRES

FLATHEAD INDIAN RESERVATION IS ABLAZE WITH CONFLAGRATION

Though Whitehead Not Seriously Threatened, Wind Might Change.

Kalispell, July 14.—Scores are fighting forest fires in the Flathead district and valley with little hope of quelling them unless the rain falls. There is no indication of rain. Government, civil and private parties are combined in the fight. The Great Northern the camps have been destroyed at several points, and also an immense amount of timber. Flames are on all sides of the town of Whitefish, and have been threatening it with destruction, although the danger is not imminent unless the breeze continues. Huge clouds of smoke obscure the sky and choke the fighters. Unless rain falls, the loss will be the heaviest in Flathead history.

ASSEMBLY ENDORSED

The Union County Republican Central Committee, duly chosen as the official representatives of the Republican party in Union county, unanimously resolve as follows:

1. We reaffirm our faith in the integrity of the Republican party and the wisdom of Republican principles.

2. The Direct Primary law must be sustained and under its provisions Republican meetings should be held, where platforms may be adopted, principles discussed and recommendations to the party at large made.

3. With that abiding faith in the Republicans of Oregon to give the state good government, we pledge the delegation elected today to assist in the organization of the party, so long as that organization does not tend toward corrupt convention methods such as have been a matter of common knowledge in years past; and that such efforts be made as will carry out in the state of Oregon, the principles and plans of organization outlined by Taft, Roosevelt and Hughes.

The O. R. & N. has offered a one and one-third fare for all Eastern Oregon delegates who will attend the assembly next week.

MERCURY DROPS

Down to Ninety Degrees today Although Humidity is Depressing

More intense has seemed the heat in La Grande today than any day this week, though the government heat indicator registers but 90 degrees. This is in sharp contrast to yesterday's record, when the mercury went the highest of the year, touching 97 degrees.

AMERICAN DENTIST SUSPECTED OF WHOLESALE MURDERS

Bodies of Two Found and Suspected Man Is Missing

London, July 14.—Not since the famous Whitechapel murders has London been so aroused as today, following the discovery of a body believed to be that of Mrs. Hawley Crippen, formerly a noted singer, and the disappearance of her husband, an American dentist, who is charged with her murder. The police have recovered two bodies in the cellar of an old house, occupied by Crippen at Islington. Scores of detectives are detailed on the case. Authorities throughout the world telegraphed orders to arrest a man and woman who are now passing as man and wife. Physicians declare the woman has been dead six months. The woman disappeared and soon after Crippen advertised that she was dead, although he told the neighbors she had gone abroad. He then disappeared with another woman.

The police charge that Crippen slew his wife, told the neighbors she had gone abroad, and forged letters from her to her friend, advertising her death. Mrs. Crippen was of Polish nobility and fled from Poland to America to escape persecutions. She was born in Philadelphia and was educated in America. In Europe she became famous as a singer, owing to her great vocal range.

PLAYLE CROP IS ONLY LOSS

ADJOINING FIELDS SUFFER BUT SLIGHTLY FROM FIRE.

Farmers Come to Aid of Wheat Growers and Prevent General Spread

Eighty acres of wheat land, conservatively estimated to top fifty bushels per acre, belonging to Chas. Playle of Allcel, was the chief loss in yesterday afternoon's fire, according to reports today. Fire fighters coming in automobiles and foaming steeds, congregated from a radius of five miles in a remarkably short time and the Ruckman and Sherwood Williams fields were practically entirely saved. The smoke covering a large area of the fields, made it appear that the loss would extend over three farms. The telephone was used to good advantage of recruited fire fighters.

Books and Authors

Some New Publications Attracting Attention.

HAT Henry Russell Miller has given us a story of extraordinary interest, force and power in his new political novel, "The Man Higher Up," published by the Bobbs-Merrill company, the best known book critics agree, and that he is eminently qualified to handle such a theme may be gleaned by a glance at his career.

Early in life Mr. Miller became a student of civic problems, which took him into political fields, where was offered the opportunity of studying the "machine" and its workings at close range. During several years he entered heartily into the activities of campaigns, making speeches and delivering lectures, and all this time was getting inside facts of the methods of the ward heeler, the party boss and the grafter. In "The Man Higher Up" these facts are woven into a tensesly dramatic story, teeming with exciting incidents that command and hold the reader's attention to the end. Robert McAdoo, its hero, who rises by means of his own iron will from tenement founding to governor of his state, is one of the most picturesque characters ever figuring in a romance.

Much has been said and written about the works of Thomas Hardy, the famous novelist, who recently celebrated his seventieth birthday, but very little is generally known of the author himself. He is said to be a most difficult man to approach, and the story is told how a pertinacious American autograph seeker who visited Max Gate in a quest for an addition to his collection was almost overcome by the shock when the famous novelist received his visitor most graciously and presented him with several autograph copies of his best known works.

THOMAS HARDY.

One of Mr. Hardy's eccentricities is his habit of invariably wearing two waistcoats. In severe weather, it is said, the famous author has been known to don as many as four, but even on the hottest summer day he sticks to his two.

Frenchmen Celebrate Holiday. Paris, July 14.—Again the whirligig of time has brought to Paris that day of days, the "glorious fourteenth" when all loyal Frenchmen with republican blood in their veins and patriotic sentiments in their minds turn themselves loose to celebrate the anniversary of that other grim and terrible fourteenth of July, when the Bastille, a symbol of kingly tyranny, fell before the onslaught of a mob, shouting "Liberte, Fraternite et Egalite."

True, firecrackers are taboo and there is no heavyweight championship to add eclat to the French national holiday. Yet today all is merry as a marriage bell in this city of light and laughter, and the victory of a black Johnson over a white Jeffries could add nothing to the joyousness of the occasion.
