SCHOOL HOUSE REARING.

Joseph Institution Well Along on Its Way of Construction.

Joseph, July 15.—The new school house, which Joseph is building, is progressing rapidly. Contractor Bert Smith has the building well along and it will be ready for occupancy by the time school opens in the fall. With the new school house and various other improvements realized, Joseph has commenced a systematic growth and she will exploit her summer resources and her soil virtues to the world along modern lines and will thereby profit.

Sewer System for West Pendleton West Pendleton is to have a sewer system. The plans and specifications for the proposed extension as prepared by City Engineer Kimbrell were adopted at last night's meeting of the council and the recorder was instructed to advertise for bids.

All that part of Pendleton not now supplied with sewer facilities will be provided for by the new system. This will have an outlet separate from the present main sewer outlet and will empty into the Umatilla river, west of the O. R. & N. steel bridge. The old sewer empties into the river just above the site of the old wooden bridge.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

"Man From Mexico" Tonight.

The rip-roaring farce comedy, "The Man from Mexico" opened last night at the Airdome and will run tonight and tomorrow night.

The story is of a good-fellow-of-a-husband, who is arrested while on a spree and sentenced to thirty days in jail. In his attempt to keep it from his wife, he tells her he is called to Mexico and a series of immensely funny situations ensue.

Mr. Belasco, (who, by the way, is a cousin of David Belasco, the famous theatrical manager of New York), as the "Man" is simply great, in fact, there has never been so talented a young actor in stock in La Grande.
His support is excellent—the spectacles fine. Gibson and Post receiving quite an ovation. Miss Godfrey, as an encore, sings "Last Rose of Summer" beautifully.
