"How Baxter Butted In"

WOMAN'S AFFECTION GONE.

When Former Lover Takes Her Ring,
She Has Him Arrested.

All the fond affection that Ida V. Fisher entertained for Claud W. Garletz fled when he took her diamond ring, worth $150, had it fashioned into a scarf pin for himself, and then departed without saying goodbye.

Miss Fisher, who lives at the Barton Hotel, had known Garletz some time and the two were quite friendly. He prevailed upon her to entrust the gem to him and after securing it two months ago, he disappeared and left no word. The woman finally reported the case to the police and yesterday a report was received from the city marshal at Madras that the man was there. The officer was instructed to arrest him and bring him to the city, where he will be held to answer a charge of larceny by baillee. He is expected to arrive tonight.—Portland Oregonian.

The parties mention once lived in La Grande. Garletz went by the name of Williams when here.
