TEDDY WILL AID HIS NEPHEW

ROOSEVELT PROMISES TO HELP AMBITIOUS RELATIVE

Complications in Herkimer County Knotty But Teddy Will Help

Utica, New York, July 29.—Although Herkimer county is used to red hot political conflicts, it is conceded that the situation was never so acute as it is today upon the opening of the Herkimer county convention. At today's convention a fight is on for the congressional nomination in the Twenty-seventh district, composed of the counties of Herkimer and Oneida, between Theodore Douglas Robinson, nephew of ex-President Roosevelt and Charles S. Millington, the incumbent. The contest is about the warmest ever waged in this hot-bed of republicanism.

Millington and his supporters, led by state committeeman Stroebel, assert that there will be no difficulty in renominating Millington. But this is a year of surprises and young Robinson, while not so sure of nomination, thinks he has a fighting chance and is going to do all in his power to win it. Young Robinson has the unqualified endorsement of his uncle, but the ex-president says he will not enter the fight actively until Robinson actually gets the nomination. If he succeeds, T. R. has promised to make some speeches in his behalf.
