The High Fliers.

The aviators are after the goods, but they are not to be confounded with a certain "higher up" class. — Atlanta Constitution.

Anyway, the aeroplane has put an end to the plaint of the mollycoddle who was always sighing for the wings of a dove. — Chicago News.

The aeroplane lacks one important ornithological feature—it can't float. When it stops it has to seek a roost. — St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Recent Inventions.

A recently patented door closet is made adjustable so that it will close a door completely or return it to any desired open angle.

An all rubber automobile wheel has been patented, rigid at the center and with the hardness lessening gradually until the circumference is reached.

A Scotch inventor has perfected a sledlike machine which when drawn over a road accurately records on a paper covered cylinder all irregularities in the road's surface.

For that dizzy feeling try Blue Mountain liver pills. Best on earth. Get them at the Red Cross Drug Store.

The Test.

A woman of some years entered the store.

"Sir," she said to a salesman, "may I speak with the manager?"

The manager was called.

"Sir, has your store a high rating?" she asked.

"Yes, madam; A1."

"And have you a good class of trade?"

"The very best in the city."

"And what are they of tested honesty?"

"Every one, madam."

"Thank you. May I leave my umbrella here while I do a little shopping?" — Buffalo Express.

Society Drama.

The parlor drama has the bulge

On other plays with me.

I love to hear the folks indulge

In pleasant repartee.

The hero's always so polite,

Emits no vulgar "damns,"

But merely puts the foe to flight

With cutting epigrams.

There is no ranting and no rage,

No wish to maim or slay.

The players loiter about the stage

In cultivated way.

The characters are culled with care.

They are no common hams.

The butler even has his share

Of timely epigrams.

—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Heard in a Haberdashery. Customer (returning and putting down counterfeit coin received in change)—I want a better half. Clerk—Beg pardon, sir, but this isn't a matrimonial agency. — Boston Transcript.

The Inheritance.

The college got a million bones. The heirs were very bitter. But never mind. That school now owns a star catcher, a spitball pitcher and an elegant pinch hitter. — Detached Sheet.

Time to Escape.

"Why were you in such a hurry to escape from that man?" "He told me he had just found out a way in which I could become very rich." — Chicago Record-Herald.

Revenge.

Like the lava from a crater Came the gravy on his pate, For he failed to tip the waiter, So the waiter tipped the plate. — Woman's Home Companion.

Bringing the Offer Up to Date. Knicker—I would go through fire and water for you. Stella—Air too? — New York Sun.

Varying Motives.

How different are the men who go A hero's praise to swell! Some cheer because they love him so, And some just like to yell. — Washington Star.

Farming, Fruit and Grazing Lands

Below you may see a sample of the many listings which I hold. If you want to buy or sell I will be pleased to have you call. MANY BARGAINS IN CITY PROPERTY

Insure Your Grain

Many farms are insuring their grain now in the field during the period of harvest and storing. If interested call or phone me.

Why Pay Rent?

I have a seven-room plastered house, slightly view of city and valley. City water in house, stone foundation. Terms $100 down, balance on easy terms, either $15 per month or $100 every six months.

Now in Course of Contraction

Fine modern house in every respect, plumbed, flue built for furnace, large basement cellar. Everything first class. Situated on east Adams avenue, $3,500 on easy terms.

Grazing Land

240 acres, large spring on place. Good wagon road to tract; considerable can be cultivated. Price $7 per acre.

Fruit Farms

I have several choice buys in improved fruit farms, where the orchards are all the way from 7 years to 13 years of age. The crops are now on the trees and speak for themselves. To illustrate, we have one 20 acre tract with 14 acres of bearing orchard, 6 acres on which the trees are 13 years old, 8 acres seven years old, water right; every acre first class land and crop goes with place, if taken very soon. Price only $6,500.

Other Bargains

We have other bargains in fruit land, several close to La Grande, and several tracts on the Sandridge, including some extra fine property adjoining Imbler. If you want anything in fruit bearing orchards call.

Sand Ridge Farm

eighty-four acres, splendid land, for either grain or fruit, $8,500; one mile from Imbler. At least one-half cash required.

Farm in Lower Cove

160 acres splendid timothy land, owner has been farming it in grain for seven years. River runs through a portion of it. 260 per acre.

Farm near Talocaset

160 acres of land near Telocaset. This land was farmed for many years. Price if taken in near future $5 per acre.

Farm near Summerville

80 acres fine fruit land, $60 per acre. If interested call and learn particulars.

Opportunity for Speculation

80 acres adjoining the city. Crop growing on no less than 20 acres, fine large spring. This place is all well fenced, county road running along entire side of place, making it suitable for subdivision into small tracts. The price is only $37.50 per acre. This land if cut up would easily bring $100 per acre. Land on two sides of it cannot be bought today for $100 per acre.

A Real Home

80 acre farm one quarter of a mile from city limits. Good modern house with furnace, bath, toilet, cement cellar with living spring. Commercial orchard of seven acres, ideal dairy and poultry farm, $5,000 on easy terms.

City Property

House and three lots on Pennsylvania avenue, two story, in splendid repair. Just repainted and papered throughout, $2,500, reasonable terms.

Nice little home in North La Grande, easy terms on this place, $1100.

Two-story house and three lots on North Fir street desirable property, for only $1,400.

Twelve acres and nice two-story house in South La Grande, $4,000; 100 fruit trees and an ideal place for a few cows and poultry. This site is a commanding view of beautiful Grande Ronde.

A new seven-room house on East Adams avenue, roomy basement, plastered, well finished throughout, $2,500.

Three lots on Main avenue, facing north for $350.

Three lots on the beautiful slightly hill side, west of La Grande for $1,000.

Desirable lot and houses in nearly every portion of the city.
