Turkey Dusters

There is no question about the everyday usefulness of a feather duster. You can get along without one, but better with one. Saves stooping, reaching and climbing, and will do some kinds of dusting better than anything else.

The time was when the cost made them luxurious. Our prices ought to make them necessities. After using one a while you would as soon think of getting along without a broom as a duster. Our stock of dusters was bought close and we can afford to sell them the same way.

SIRES AND SONS.

Mr. Ranken, the St. Louis millionaire who has given his fortune to an industrial school, lives over a grocery store.

M. Pinchon, the French foreign minister, used to be a newspaper man. In 1878 he joined M. Clemenceau's paper, La Justice, and retained his connection with it until the beginning of his diplomatic career in 1894.

Admiral Dot, the midget, who sixteen years ago opened the Admiral Dot hotel in White Plains, has leased his hotel for ten years. Admiral Dot intends to live a retired life, as he is worth close to $250,000.

Marroul recently stated at Montreal that he intends to make a series of tests at the end of the summer for the purpose of ascertaining the practicability of sending a message across Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Pierre Poudrier of Quebec is sixty-three years old and is the father of thirty-one children, twenty-three of whom are living. They range in age from forty-five years to about one month. Poudrier has been married three times.

The oldest employe about the United States supreme court—one of the oldest in the service of the government in any of its numerous phases—is Archie Lewis, who is in charge of the robing room of the justices. Lewis began his service in the court as a body servant in 1840.

YOU'LL BE STRUCK

WITH AMAZEMENT

If you could see how some factory made clothing is put together. The skimping of materials, the inferior interlinings. But none of these things occur in a suit of our tailoring. That's why one suit of ours will outlast two of the factory made. Order one and the wear will prove it.

SAVED HER SON'S LIFE

My son Rex was taken down a year ago with lung trouble. We doctored some months without improvement. Then I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed a change for the better. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks and now my son is perfectly well and works every day.
