WINDSOR, ENGLAND, HAS HEARD OF UNION COUNTY

Literature Reaches Him, Inciting Considerable Interest in Locality

ENGLANDER WANTS

From Windsor, England comes a letter to the La Grande commercial club asking for information relative to the resources and business possibilities of the Grande Ronde valley. The letter is written by a man named W. D. Scott, and he wants information relative to the price of land, the products and the resources. He admits that he has heard of the Grande Ronde through literature, and wants more of the same kind of information. He has heard of Oregon in general, but seems to be especially pleased with the prospects of this county, and it is presumed that when the proper information is sent to him, he will come here to investigate first hand.
