RANDALL PLACE IS TRANSFERRED

HOMESTEAD LEAVES RANDALL'S HANDS FOR FIRST TIME.

Present Owner Got Property from His Father who Got it From State.

W. W. Randall has sold the Randall homestead of 160 acres to Doctor C. H. Upton of this city, through George H. Currey real estate office, and the sale marks the passing of one of the oldest homesteads in the county to hands other than the Randalls.

W. W. RANDALL

After farming for twenty-four years, is able to retire and live in La Grande. His "160" is one of the choice farms of the valley.

W. W. Randall's father got the land from the state and recent owner, W. W. Randall, farmed it for twenty-four years.

Crop a Splendid One.

The crop which goes with the place is a fine one. Shocks of grain crowd each other in pleasing uniformity over the entire field. The place is located near the river and has always been one of the feature wheat farms of the valley.

YOU'LL BE STRUCK WITH AMAZEMENT

If you could see how some factory made clothing is put together. The skimping of materials, the inferior interlinings. But none of these things occur in a suit of our tailoring. That's why one suit of ours will outlast two of the factory made. Order one and the wear will prove it.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery, bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take, equally valuable for children and adults.

Randall to Quit Farming.

Except for the fall threshing period, Mr. Randall is to retire from all things farming. He is living in La Grande and has accumulated enough from his "160" to be able to retire, the same as many other farmers are doing.

The price paid for the land indicates owner of land made purchase today its value. Nine thousand six hundred was the price. Mr. Upton, the new following his whole-hearted conversion to the altruism that Grande Ronde soil is excellent security.

"Look here, Wilkins," said a doctor to his boy in buttons, whom he had occasion to reprimand, "I can't stand any more of this nonsense. You'll have to turn over a fresh leaf."

"All right, sir," was the witty response; "you shan't complain of me again, sir. I'll be an entirely new page."—London Opinion.

All on One Side.
"I am told your bride is very pretty," said Miss Peppery.

"Yes, indeed!" replied Mr. Con Seet. "Several of the guests at the ceremony were pleased to call it a 'wedding of beauty and brains.'"

"Well, well! She must be a remarkable woman! That's an unusual combination in one person."

The Psalms.
Many years ago a new clergyman was taking Sunday duty in a remote hamlet among the Yorkshire wolds. After morning service the old clerk came up to him and observed: "So ye calls them 'Saums,' do ye? Noo, we never knew what to make o' that 'ere P. We allus calls 'em 'Spasms.'"—London Scraps.

Grit.
Grit is the grain of character. It may generally be described as heroism materialized—spirit and will thrust into heart, brain and backbone, so as to form part of the physical substance of the man.—Whipple.

Ladd Park, which is located in the center of Laurelhurst, is to be improved at once, and when the proposed improvements have been made it will be the most magnificent public park in Portland. These improvements include the creation of extensive botanical gardens, an enlargement of the present natural lake now there, and scenic driveways and walks.

Residence property fronting on or convenient to a public park is always in demand and brings high values. The boulevards of Laurelhurst have been made to conform to the proposed driveways of the park. As soon as the improvements in Ladd Park are completed, then prices in Laurelhurst lots will advance another notch or two.

Laurelhurst

The Addition with Character

- BECAUSE Laurelhurst is a good place to invest money in.
- BECAUSE The titles are perfect. A warranty deed with full covenants and a certified abstract of title will be given to each purchaser.
- BECAUSE The prices are low. This is nearly always the case in placing a new addition on the market. The prices are made very low to get people interested. The value of all the property increases as new homes are built, and those who buy early share in the increased value, because they help to make it.
- BECAUSE The population of Portland is growing at the rate of 30,000 a year, and all of these people must have homes. The building statistics for the past 21 months show that 51 per cent of the permits granted for residences have been issued for home on the East side. Today 73 per cent of the people in Portland live on the East side, and 27 per cent on the West side. Does this mean anything? It means wonderful advances in east side prices in general, and Laurelhurst in particular, because Laurelhurst prices are now just about one-half of the real values.
- BECAUSE It surrounds the new city park that is to be improved at once, and made one of the great scenic attractions of Portland, adding value to all adjacent property.
- BECAUSE The lots now selling at an average price of $1150 each will be worth double that amount in one year.
- BECAUSE We are offering Special Inducements to those who commence building this year.
