YOU'LL BE STRUCK

WITH AMAZEMENT

If you could see how some factory made clothing is put together. The skimping of materials, the inferior interlinings. But none of these things occur in a suit of our tailoring. That's why one suit of ours will outlast two of the factory made. Order one and the wear will prove it.

C. W. BAKER.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means it really fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery, bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take equally valuable for children and adults.

The Barber's Idea.
Bentley had been out late the night before, or rather, he had stayed in late in a little affair, and about all he had left to show for it in the morning was an old fashioned away-from-home made headache. In hope of relief he had sought his old friend, the barber, and the latter had been busy on Bentley's head and face for the past hour. "By Jove, Kart," said Bentley as the barber rubbed the top of his head, "that feels mighty good. I can tell you. The man who invented massage was not only a genius, but a benefactor to the whole human race. They ought to put up a statue to him. There's nothing like it when a fellow feels seedy. There's only one trouble about it."

"Vot iss it?" asked Kart, hoping that perhaps he might overcome the difficulty. "Why, it's all on the outside," said Bentley. "If there were only some apparatus that would enable you to get inside a fellow's head and clear out the pains of the morning after, what a blessing it would be."

"Vell," said Kart, "I think that maybe some day dose vacuum cleaner fetters will do dot already. Vot?"—Harper's Weekly.

The Practical Goat.
M. Jules Renard was the mayor of Corbigny, in the Nièvre. Every Sunday he contributed to the Journal de Clamecy, and this is the sort of things he used to give the peasants. Writing of the Journal Officiel, posted up on the wall of the mairie and which no one ever reads, he said:

"I had forgotten the goats. One of them never misses a number. Standing on its hind legs, with its front legs resting on the poster, it moses its horns and beard from right to left, like an old woman reading. When it has finished reading, as the official sheet has an appetizing smell of fresh paste, the goat eats it. After nourishing the mind one must feed the body. Thus nothing is lost in the commune. What a pity that all novel readers have not the stomach of this practical goat! They might then eat the books they had read, buy more, and so the man of letters would in the end be able to eat in his turn."—Paris Letter to London Globe.

Schoolma'ams Take Notice.
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 11.—Schoolma'ams of other sections of the country who are desirous of a change of air and scenery and an increase in salary should sit right down and write a letter applying for a job, addressed to the educational authorities of almost any city or town in Washington, Idaho, Montana or Oregon. The chances are ten to one they will find the offer snapped up immediately, owing to the great shortage in the crop of teachers in the Northwest. As there are more men than women in this section, and pretty schoolma'ams are always quoted above par in the matrimonial market—but the educational authorities want nothing said about that phase of the matter. It is to that that the present shortage of schoolma'ams is due.

Laundry Patrons—Notice

Cherry's New Laundry, having taken their horse and wagon from us, it becomes necessary for us to handle the work, which has formerly been handled by that wagon, with our own. Our deliveryman has not attempted to become familiar with the calls heretofore made by the other wagon, consequently some of their patrons may be overlooked.

A phone call will bring our wagon. We have been able to procure sufficient help, so that we can now handle all work without any delay.

Ladd Park, which is located in the center of Laurelhurst, is to be improved at once, and when the proposed improvements have been made it will be the most magnificent public park in Portland. These improvements include the creation of extensive botanical gardens, an enlargement of the present natural lake now there, and scenic driveways and walks.

Residence property fronting on or convenient to a public park is always in demand and brings high values. The boulevards of Laurelhurst have been made to conform to the proposed driveways of the park. As soon as the improvements in Ladd Park are completed, then prices in Laurelhurst lots will advance another notch or two.

Laurelhurst

The Addition with Character

- BECAUSE Laurelhurst is a good place to invest money in. The titles are perfect. A warranty deed with full covenants and a certified abstract of title will be given to each purchaser.
- BECAUSE The prices are low. This is nearly always the case in placing a new addition on the market. The prices are made very low to get people interested. The value of all the property increases as new homes are built, and those who buy early share in the increased value, because they help to make it.
- BECAUSE The population of Portland is growing at the rate of 30,000 a year, and all of these people must have homes. The building statistics for the past 21 months show that 51 per cent of the permits granted for residences have been issued for home on the East side. Today 73 per cent of the people in Portland live on the East side, and 27 per cent on the West side.
Does this mean anything?
It means wonderful advances in east side prices in general, and Laurelhurst in particular, because Laurelhurst prices are now just about one-half of the real values.
- BECAUSE It surrounds the new city park that is to be improved at once, and made one of the great scenic attractions of Portland, adding value to all adjacent property.
- BECAUSE The lots now selling at an average price of $1150 each will be worth double that amount in one year.
- BECAUSE We are offering Special Inducements to those who commence building this year.
