Got It at Last.

It is told of a distinguished professor of history that, in an address before a woman's club on "Obscure Heroes of the French Revolution," he had reached the point where one of them, nobly resolved to essay the rescue of a friend doomed to the guillotine, sought a parting interview with his sweetheart before making the almost hopeless attempt. The professor had a moving voice and was eloquent. The assembly of women, many of them already near tears, hung breathless upon his words.

"Biddy, diddy," said he pathetically, then coughed slightly and went back. "Biddy diddy"—Something was evidently amiss. He tried again.

"Biddy diddy diddy doo." By this time the ladies looked puzzled and the orator desperate. Drawing a long breath and speaking with painful deliberation, he at length conquered the elusive syllables and said: "Did he bid adieu?"—Youth's Companion.

"Kitty" Bransfield Makes Record.

"Kitty" Bransfield, the Philadelphia Nationals' first baseman, recently made a record of runs scored and driven in that may not be equaled for years. In a recent game at Forbes field the Philadelphia player got five hits, two of them triples, and not only scored three runs himself, but drove in eight others. Kitty's hitting alone gave Philadelphia eleven runs.

Laundry Patrons—Notice

Cherry's New Laundry, having taken their horse and wagon from us, it becomes necessary for us to handle the work, which has formerly been handled by that wagon, with our own. Our deliveryman has not attempted to become familiar with the calls heretofore made by the other wagon, consequently some of their patrons may be overlooked.

A phone call will bring our wagon. We have been able to procure sufficient help, so that we can now handle all work without any delay.
