

Have a Summer Without Headaches

Summer should be a recreation time, a time when life is really enjoyed and when vitality is stored for the more trying seasons.

The pleasure of many people is spoiled by headaches. Travel, outings or exposure to the sun is apt to bring on this affliction. Don't have headaches this summer. Keep a supply of our

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that the medicine falls to cure diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera complaints. It is pleasant to take, and especially valuable for children and

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Miss Ethel C. Zimmerman of East St. Louis has won a prize for drawing the best plan of a seven room house to cost $2,500. She had more than 5,000 competitors.

Mrs. Frances Folsom Cleveland is to have a library named in her honor at Wells college, New York, where she was graduated. She was present at the ceremony of breaking the sod.

Miss Mary B. May of Peacedale, R. I., and Miss Alice Cook of Oskaloosa, Ia., received the degree of bachelor of divinity at the seventy-sixth anniversary of Hartford Theological seminary.

Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of the Chicago public schools, has been elected president of the National Education association. Mrs. Young is the first woman to be chosen president of the association.

Princess Kalmannale is the wife of the representative from Honolulu. Last winter she proved herself a charming hostess in Washington, giving many elaborate entertainments, and her rare collection of jewels attracted much attention.

One of the pioneers in "back to the soil" idea is Mrs. Henry Parsons of New York. Farm plots established in vacant city lots, are the means by which she approaches the important question of the enriching and saving of child lives in the congested districts.

The Royal Box.

The king of Spain is the only Bourbon still on a throne.

King George of England, who is an accomplished horseman as well as a crack shot, is taking saddle exercise these mornings in Rotten Row.

Queen Elizabeth had a red nose and was much ashamed of it. She always took pains to have it powdered before making appearance on a state occasion.

The Duke of Westgotland, a younger brother of the king of Sweden, and his wife, who was Princess Ingeborg, oldest daughter of the king of Denmark, are believers in the simple life. Their two children, Princess Margaret, eleven years old, and Princess Martha, nine, are taught to do every kind of household work.

Photographing a Panther.

A panther is not easily killed and will often revive with very unpleasant results, as on a certain occasion in the Deccan. He appeared to be quite dead, and one of the spectators rushed up with a camera on a stand to obtain a picture of the supreme moment. He got his photograph, and, strange to say, it survived what followed, but no sooner had he taken it than the panther revived, tore himself loose and went for the photographer. Somehow the man escaped, but the camera was sent flying, and disconcerted by his encounter with it, the panther turned and made for the nearest tree, up which he went as quickly as a monkey. Now, the tree was crowded with interested spectators, and for three or four strenuous seconds (until the panther was shot) we enjoyed a spectacle of natives dropping to earth with loud thuds like ripe plums from a jungle plum tree as the panther approached them.—Wide World Magazine.

Bismarck and His Dog.

Sultan, Prince Bismarck's favorite hound, attacked a passing railroad train and was cut to pieces. Bismarck's grief over the dog's agonies was such that his son Herbert tried to lead him away, but the prince would not go. "No, I cannot leave him like this." Then, when the dog's sufferings were over, Bismarck wiped his eyes and murmured: "Our Teuton forefathers showed benevolence in their religion. They believed they would find in the hunting grounds of their paradise, all the dogs that had been their faithful comrades here below. I wish I could believe that."

Marriage Music.

During my school days I met the late Professor Prout, who was as full of fun as he was of musical lore. It is said that at a wedding at which the late Dublin professor was presiding at the organ he played the happy couple in with "Wretched Lovers" and out with "Father, Forgive Them, For They Know Not What They Do!"—From "Fifty Years' Reminiscences of a Free Church Musician," by E. Minshall.

Teeth.

Bobby—My gran'ma's so old she ain't got a tooth in her head. Tommy—Ain't she? Well, maybe they're in her bureau drawer, like my Aunt Tillie's is sometimes.

Imitation.

"Imitation may be the sincerest flattery," said Uncle Eben, "but dat does not make counterfeit money any mo' acceptable."—Washington Star
