

First Showing of Millinery for For Early Fall--Saturday

Our showing of Millinery far exceeds anything we have ever carried. Call and see the latest.

THE FAIR

NEW BUILDINGS ARE MANY

ELEGANT RESIDENCE WHERE 5 YEARS AGO NO ONE LIVED

Over Twenty Residence and Cottages Going up at Present Time.

Over twenty residences and cottages—one of them, a colonial structure that will vie with any now built in La Grande for general appearance—are under process of construction in La Grande today. Most of them are in North La Grande. In Pleasant Home addition, just south of the sugar factory, where five years ago there was absolutely nothing and where a few "shacks" were built a few years ago, L. Garrick is erecting a colonial residence, full two stories and equipped with the regulation colonial porches. The house is shingled and will be ready for occupancy this fall. Marking, as it does, the rapid settlement of is considered a barometer of the expansion. A few of the twenty odd residences and cottages are not costly affairs, but many of them are very comfortable, ranging in price between $1,000 and $2,000.

Albert Heaton, edger of the Palmer mill, is building a story and a half residence on Division street between Second and Third. This is one of the many neat little cottages that have sprung up in that section of the city the past year.

A new house is going up on Lake street, and two blocks north of that, in Block 1, Rynearson's addition, two other neat little cottages are being built.

Sam Phillips is building a six-room house, modern throughout, on Jackson avenue between North Fir and Greenwood. It will cost about $2,000.

The foundation for the Mrs. I. W. Snodgrass residence on First and Washington is practically completed. The structure will be built at once.

Some elegant interior finishings are being completed on the Doctor R. L. Lincoln residence on West Main, in what is rapidly coming to be the lonable residence district of the city. The W. R. Jones residence on Seventh and O streets is reaching a point where sidings and exterior finishings are in order.

Mr. Standfield who purchased the two-acre garden truck farm owned by Anna Paus is building himself a very fine little residence. It, too, will be an attraction to the north side.

Foundation for a nice little cottage is complete on the John Rogers place. The house is owned by the proprietor of the Blue Front saloon.

A cottage is going up on the L. O. Rose tract of four lots.

J. E. Baker is building himself a small cottage on Pleasant Home addition.

With these buildings under way, and many others planned, the year will prove itself to be the greatest building year, as far as residences are concerned, that have been recorded in a decade.

GREEKS STRIFE CONTINUES

CHARGES AND COUNTER CHARGES ARE KEPT UP.

One Man Fined Twenty-five Dollars For Profane Language.

Troubles between different clans and tongues of local Greek colonies in the city, did not cease with the release of the man yesterday morning who was charged with stealing some money from a fellow countryman. The charges acted as a boomerang for Gust Nichols, the man to prefer the charges of theft and assault, was arrested this morning for using profane language in connection with some disputes that arose over the various incidents. Nicholas was accused also by fellow countrymen of having extorted money from Nick Satarus. At any rate, $30 are now in the possession of Night Officer McLaughlin, and something may develop in the higher court. Nicholas was fined $25 by Judge Cox this morning.

Grandview Addition

Is now on the Market

This will be the most slightly addition of La Grande. The only addition to La Grande with building restrictions. The lots are large—nearly a full acre in each lot. We are going to set out some nice apple and cherry trees on each lot. We are going to make the prices reasonable, and most favorable terms. No interest. No taxes. Come to our office and look at the plat, then get into our automobile and go see the property.

La Grande Investment Co. Owners, La Grande, Oregon

The story is told that John Satarus struck Nicholas while the latter was asleep, but Nicholas scared Nick Satarus into digging up $30, and in return George Fell was to be absolved of the thefts. Nicholas still adheres to the story that it was Fell who struck him, while the other Greeks are unanimous in their assertion that Nicholas is telling that story to retain his $30. But Night Officer McLaughlin was told of the story, and is holding the $30 until some future time when the matter is definitely settled.

Coming to America.

Rome, Aug. 19.—A party of distinguished Roman Catholic clergymen left Rome today for England, and on Thursday next will take passage with the English and Irish delegation on the Empress of Ireland, for Montreal. The purpose of the pilgrimage is to attend the eucharistic congress in the Canadian metropolis next month. In addition to the Italian, British and Irish clergy, the party will include other churchmen from Spain, Austria, Belgium, France, Germany and many other European countries.

The Land of Opportunity

Union County where crop failures are unknown; whose large diversified interests appeal to all; whose payrolls are second to only one county in the state of Oregon.

With all our present activity and development we are just entering upon an era of advancement.

A drive through beautiful Grande Ronde valley at this season when the golden fields are delivering their annual bounteous yields, when thousands upon thousands of fruit trees are bearing heavy loads of apples that will enter the markets of our own and foreign lands, green alfalfa fields with constantly increasing acreage, telephone lines running everywhere rural deliveries, numerous school houses and churches, prosperous homes,—all bespeak the certainty of investment and the insurance of independence.

Who are the money kings of Grande Ronde? The farmer, whether wheat grower, fruit grower, or stock raiser—in short the land owner. Enough said.
