WOMAN, LOVELY WOMAN

But Alas, Without Beautiful Hair, No Woman can be Handsome

A great many newspapers and magazines are printing pages on how a woman can be beautiful and keep beautiful.

And all of them, as you can see for yourself, admits that no woman can be really beautiful unless she has lustrous and luxuriant hair.

The women of Paris are, as a rule, beautiful and a careful American observer who has traveled much claims that their beauty is due to their knowledge of how to keep their hair luxuriant, which they do by using a superior hair tonic.

Many American women are as wise as their French sisters, and that is why Parisian Sage, the quick acting and greatest of all hair restorers and tonics, is now having such a tremendous sale in America.

We ask every woman reader of this paper to give this marvelous hair beautifier a thorough trial, and we glad make them this liberal offer:

Get a large 50 cent bottle from the Newlin Drug Co. today. Use it as directed for two weeks. If at the end of that time, you are not satisfied with results, say so to the Newlin people and they will give you your money back.

Besides being a delightful and invigorating hair dressing, Parisian Sage will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp, or money back.

Mail orders filled, all charges prepaid, by the American maker, Groux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.
