

THE ISIS

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM

Tralled to the Hills—S. & A. Max Folls the Police. The Cossacks—Pathé. Mazepa—Pathé.

Beautiful dishes given to lady patrons of the matinee. See display in lobby.

MISSION 10c

LOCAL ITEMS.

E. Polack is in Wallowa county today, looking after business matters.

Judge W. R. Ellis returned to his home in Pendleton Saturday evening.

A. A. Roberts, the real estate man, is visiting friends in Pendleton today.

Mrs. Kate Long of Ontario is a Sommer hotel guest here today.

J. T. Haskins of Echo and Chas. C. Haskins also of Echo, spent yesterday and today in the city.

Mrs. E. E. Baitezore and daughter of Pendleton are guests at the Foley today.

Mary and Lizzie Wells of Imbler registered at the Sommer while in the city yesterday.

Byron Gilson of Wallowa, was a La Grande visitor yesterday, staying at the Sommer.

Henry Mitchell of Joseph is spending the day in the city and staying at the Foley.

FARMERS' BUSINESS

WE GIVE PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO THE BUSINESS FARMERS. WE CORDIALLY INVITE THEM TO MAKE THIS THEIR BANKING HOME.

The United States National Bank, LA GRANDE, OREGON.

Edwin C. Tabor of Scranton, Mich., is a Sommer hotel guest while looking after business matters in the city.

Ed Fowler arrived home this morning from a business and pleasure trip to Portland.

S. D. Pruitt, of the Baker City Herald, spent yesterday in La Grande with friends.

J. A. Funk of Enterprise, spent yesterday in the city. He was a Sommer hotel guest while here.

Attorney T. H. Crawford arrived home yesterday morning from Los Angeles, where he was a guest of his son, Clarence Crawford.

Miss Helen Ruth Hart returned to her home in Hilgard this morning. She spent Sunday here with her sister, Mrs. Frank Rechlin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Travis of Nampa, Idaho, returned to their home this morning, and visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Peck of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Geddes spent yesterday here with friends, returning this morning to their home in Baker City.

Chas. Herringer of Seattle, representing the Bray Clothing company, of Jonesville, Ky., is registered at the Foley.

C. H. Finn reached La Grande this morning to act as counsel in the bootlegging cases, but found court had adjourned. He is at the Savoy.

Joseph Vey and family of Pendleton are registered at the Foley. Mr. Vey is one of the leading sheep and stockmen of Umatilla county.

G. F. Freeman and Hugh Bloomquist of Palmer Junction were Sunday visitors in La Grande, staying at the Sommer.

Miss Bessie Moran of Baker, who has been visiting La Grande friends, returned to her home yesterday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Elmer Berger.

C. S. Bradley, one of the prominent citizens of Enterprise, passed through La Grande yesterday on his way home from the coast where he had been taking an outing.

Fred Gelbel, manager of the Fair store, returned today from Portland and Seaside, where he participated in the Eastern Oregon excursion last week.

State Senator Hart of Baker, was in the city Saturday evening on his way home from Union. The senator is candidate for attorney-general and reports everything looking finely.

Jefferson Myers, the Portland candidate for gubernatorial nomination at the coming primaries, is in La Grande today aligning his political fences. He has been to various cities and towns in Eastern Oregon.

H. A. Bodner has returned from Flora and other Wallowa county points, where he has been on business for several days. He says the town of Flora has not been burned and that the forest fires are not near enough to be in danger.

O. W. Moon, veteran locomotive engineer of all the engineers in the state, was here yesterday from Pendleton, where he has been located of late years. Mr. Moon brought the first train into Union county, yet he is able to officiate at the throttle today.

Prof. Day is critically ill at Hot Lake. He was operated upon last week, but was so weakened a condition that there is some question about his recovery. His relatives were called to his bedside yesterday.

morning. His condition is said to be extremely critical.

Gust Bingledorf, the shoe repairer, has earned a vacation, he says, and he is going to rest up for about three weeks. He is going to move his location, too, but is undecided what part of town he will locate in.

Ellery Massee of Menomonie, Wis., is in the city today. Mr. Massee is interested in Hood River apple land and has just completed an inspection tour of his holdings there. While in the city he is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nelson and L. F. Massee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carr and Will Church, returned last evening from an automobile juncet which took them through interior counties of Oregon and in Western Idaho as well. They have been gone about three weeks and report an excellent trip.

County Superintendent E. E. Bragg and his daughter, Miss Zoe, arrived home last evening from an extended horseback trip through interior Oregon, taking them to the John Day country.

David C. Brisboux, proprietor of the Savoy is receiving ten to twenty letters daily from outside points asking for information about the opening of government land in Wallowa county this fall.

Gertrude Stoker and Rowena Wilson of Union, are in the city today and are guests at the Savoy.

P. J. Roett, a prominent citizen of Joseph is registered at the Savoy.

Joe Cunha, sheep raiser of Umatilla county, with his home in Pendleton, is a La Grande visitor today.

Classified Advertising

FOR SALE—500 sheep, Walter Glenn, R. F. D. No 2.

TO TRADE—160 acres of timber land to trade for city property. Mac Wood, Golden Rule store.

CAN MAKE $50.00 PER WEEK—We want some good hustlers to sell high grade reliable nursery stock. Splendid territory. Expense money advanced weekly. Address Albany Nurseries, Inc., Albany, Oregon, Dept. J.

WANTED—Sewing machines to repair, all makes, by a factory expert. Leave orders at F. D. Hasteen's store. C. M. PACKER, Repairer. My last week.

COOK WANTED—At Oregon Hotel, FOR RENT CHEAP—Brick store building, 106 Fir street. Apply at the marble works.

LOST—Near the Savoy hotel, a package containing tablecloth, also one containing letters. Finder return to the Savoy hotel and receive liberal reward.

FOUND—At Selder's confectionary store, a package from the Fair store, containing three yards black silk, some insertion and buttons. Inquire at Selder's candy store.

Good apples are better for children than medicine. Geddes Bros. have the best.

The Golden Rule Co.*Fall Clothing, Dry Goods Fadies Furnishings

It will soon be common among us all to say we are looking for something for fall, fall is fast coming and we have never been in better position to furnish fall requirements than we are now.

Boys Clothing

School will demand a fitting up of the Children, in our WANDESS line of Clothing you will find Fit Wear and Style that will be satisfactory in every way and at a price that will be most satisfactory.

Two Piece Suits, Age 6 to 16 in Wool Sheviott, or Worsted . . . . . $3.50

Two Piece Suits, Age 6 to 16 in Cassimeres or Worsteds . . . . . 5.00

Young Mens Suits

The Young Men are particular and we have just what they will want for their fall suit in the CAMPUS line. Well tailored and neatly trimmed in Worsted, Cassimeres and fancy suiting.

$7.50      $10.00      $12.50

Millinery, Ladies Suits Coats and Waists

We can't say too much about these lines as they are worthy of comment,

Large line of Ladies Tailored and Linnen Waists . . . . . $1.50

Fancy Embroidered front . . . . . $1.50 to $3.00

Our line of ladies suits and coats have began to arrive and we will be talking ladies furnishings strcng in a few days.

Mrs. L. Smith the lady who has charge of our Millinery s in the market now and our stock will be here about Sept. 1st, the most complete and the finest in town.

The GOLDEN RULE CO.

Miss Josie Higgin arrived Saturday evening from Canton, Ohio, and will make her home for a time with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Campbell of this city.

Miss Frances Massee was a guest with friends in the city yesterday while enroute from Portland to Baker City, where she is employed by the Pacific Telephone district office.

impressive the Elks' lodge can give.

The remains were moved from the residence in West La Grande to the Elks' auditorium with an Elk escort.

At the auditorium, where several hundred people were assembled, Doctor Biggers, Exalted Ruler, conducted the impressive ceremonies. Music was rendered by Mesdames A. L. Richardson and Frank Bridges, Messers. C. E. Cochran and Sherwood Williams. F. S. Ivanhoe pronounced the eulogy and it was a fitting tribute to the departed.

Elks supervised the graveside ceremonies. However, the corteg to the cemetery was made up of Elks, marching, and the Mayor and Councilmen and other city officials in automobiles. Bells were tolled during the progress of the funeral.

Woodmen of the World were represented by a platoon of pall bearers.

FOR RENT—Modern 6 room house. Corner of Sixth and Penn Ave. Inquire of Miss Berger.

Fraternal and administrative circles yesterday afternoon paid fitting and final tribute to the memory of the late Councilman George Kreiger, with a fraternal burial ceremony, the most

LOST—A white collie pup. Brown ears and brown spots. Answers to the name of Commodore. Finder return to 1410 Wash. ave., and receive reward.

LAGRANGE TRIMS*BAKER CITY

LOCALS WIN IN GOOD GAME BY SIX TO FIVE SCORE

Locals Able to Come Back to Their Own after Long Vacation.

La Grande yesterday trimmed Baker City at baseball in an interesting game at the Baker City grounds. After an extended vacation the La Grande players were able to come back and put up a good quality of ball. The players assert they've given royal treatment in the mining town. The score was six to five.

The Lineup.

The lineup which Acting Manager Cockney Conkey sent against the Bakarites follows: Herr, pitcher. Pidcock, c; Stoddard, 1b; Bradley, 2b; Wallace Childers, 3b; M. Childers, ss; Heath, lf; Cottner cf and Broadard, rf.

TOMORROW

Our milliner from Seattle will arrive, and we will have on display the largest and most complete stock of Millinery ever shown in the city.

Be sure and see the latest styles

W. W. BERRY & CO.