YEOMEN MAY ORGANIZE

DEPUTY HERE TO CREATE HOME-STEAD IN LA GRANDE.

Already Several Yeomen Here and Many Others Will be Recruited.

L. E. McNabb, manager for the district of Eastern Oregon, has established headquarters at 1107 1-2 in the Foley block and will organize a homestead of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen. Mr. McNabb is an old-time deputy and expects to have a homestead of seventy-five or 100 by the 15th of November. There are a number of Yeomen in La Grande but there is no homestead here and the present members of the order await perfection of the lodge home.

In speaking of the lodge Mr. McNabb said this morning: "The Brotherhood of American Yeomen issues a combined life and accident certificate to men and women alike, making it possible for a family to join the same lodge, attend all its meetings, and equally participate in all benefits of the society.

"It is purely representative in its government. The society holds its charter and is organized under the laws of Iowa, whose insurance statutes are recognized as being the best laws in existence for the protection of policy holders.

"The society has a reserve fund which may be drawn upon to pay death losses in excess of six for each thousand benefit members in good standing in any one year, thus guaranteeing a low cost to its members.

"It issues a splendid, newsy, monthly magazine, which goes to each member free, and in which all official transactions of supreme officers are given, and matters of interest are printed.

"It levies twelve assessments each year, and issues certificates for $500, $1,000, $2,000 and $3,000.

"Don't you know that accidents are constantly increasing? This strenuous life and age is the cause of this increase. Should you be unfortunate and meet with an accident the Yeomen society comes to your aid when you need it most."
