SOCIETY

Popular dancing parties are assured the coming winter. A club was organized last night and christened the "Billiken" club which will, during the winter months give an informal party each month commencing with September if possible and continue throughout the season. The club is composed of many of the young ladies and gentlemen who figured so conspicuously in the several popular dancing parties last winter and they are therefore versed in the management of these social events of the winter-tide. More will be heard from the Billikens later. The club organized last evening is composed of: Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Scriber, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bay, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCall; Misses Irene Murphey, Ethel Gilling and Marjorie McCall; Messrs. Roscoe Doane, Walter Francis and Frank Connors.

One of the most unique and entertaining parties this season was that arranged last evening by Miss Lulu Dawson at her home, 1610 Alder street in honor of several of her young lady friends. It was a juvenile party in all senses of the word for the guests came dressed to kill in little misses gowns and games and everything pertaining to the party was really in keeping with the general scheme. Some of the gowns worn by the young ladies were stunning creations that would more than delight the younger misses whose ages they caricatured. To begin with the guests were entertained with games like "Pussy wants a corner," "Who's got the Button" and other games that are royal entertainers to the little ladies. To cap the climax a picnic luncheon was served on the floor to the assembled misses, and doughnuts, peanuts, candy and pop corn and what not was partaken of with the same relish that so many little tots would have gone. Souvenirs in the way of tiny dolls, playthings or juvenile things and toys were also given away by the generous hostess. Miss Dawson has been complimented on the success of the little party by the following who attended: Misses Olive Massee, Maud Clemments, Helen Clare Curry, Nina Tucky, Pauline Newton, Ivy Long, Selman Henson, Francis Breckenridge, Josephine Higgins, Janie Harris, Hat-tie McMurray, Harriet Harris, Jean-ette Wheatley, Ruth Ghornly, Bernice Stansfield.

The progressive dinner given last night by one section of the Ladies aid of the Presbyterian church to the other section of the same order was a great success. Later in the evening the mock trial at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brenholts was filled with screams of amusement. More than a score of characters were carried out with great amusement to the audience.

Mrs. W. R. Jones entertained the Bridge club this week. Mrs. Jay Van Buren won the honors.

Cove, Sept. 10, (Special)—Saturday evening Sept. 3rd at the close of the regular meeting the Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and Lady Maccabees tendered a farewell reception to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Martin of Cove who leave in the near future to make their home in Highland, California. A bountiful chicken supper was served and the evening spent pleasantly with games. Mrs. Martin was the recipient of a beautiful dresser scarf presented by the Lady Maccabees and a dainty cigar and cream which was presented by Mrs. Joe Goette. Mr. and Mrs. Martin will carry with them the best wishes of the many friends for their future success and happiness.

be a good congregation to meet him.

Rev. Gillian will occupy the pulpit in the Methodist church tomorrow morning and evening.

Levy Has New Stable.

Gus Levy has fixed up a fine stable at his place in Union and will always have a few fine horses therein.—Union Republican.

Roosevelt in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Sept. 10.—Labor will rub elbows with wealth when Col. Roosevelt delivers the last address of the present trip before an audience representative of all classes of citizens of the Smoky City. American, German, Welsh, Italian, Hungarian, Croatian and Negro workmen will sit side by side with captains of industry and multi-millionaires while the former president speaks on "The Civic Advance." The topic selected by Col. Roosevelt offers a wide range for the expression of his ideas of "the square deal," and his last address of the tour is likely to be among the most interesting. Mr. Roosevelt will probably leave here shortly before midnight for New York and Oyster Bay.
