NEW CUT-OFF IS COMPLETE

ALL RIGHT OF WAY SECURED FOR NEW ISLAND ROAD.

Relief for Congestion at Fir Street Crossing Made Possible.

A deal was completed yesterday afternoon in which the county purchased sixty feet of land off a lot belonging to Ed. Kammerer and which is the connecting link between the proposed extension of Island City avenue and the county road recently purchased by the county. As soon as the city completes a project of repair and road building, the cut-off will be open for traffic and will shorten the distance to Island City and will relieve the congested condition at the Fir street crossing. It runs south of the railroad.

This deal has been under contemplation for some time and the city has been buying pieces of land at various times with the result that the project is now complete as far as right of way is concerned.

The Fir street crossing has been for years a congested district. With trains switching and a heavy traffic on the street, business is often blocked for ten and sometimes fifteen minutes. Now it will be possible for the Island City traffic to come over Island City avenue where there is less switching trains and in this way the relief is obtainable.

IMPROVING HIS HOTEL.

Landlord McCrae to Make More Room for Guests.

Wallowa, Sept. 14—Special—Increased business and every indication of more to come has forced Landlord McCrae to increase the size of his popular hotel and workmen are now busily at work enlarging the building and making an addition of another story on part of it. The lobby is to be arranged in a different way making the office of the hotel nearer the street. Mr. McCrae delights in telling his guests of his abiding faith in Wallowa and urges upon every stranger the fact that Wallowa county has just started to grow.

Conductors Change Again.

J. Heughan has resumed charge of the Pilot Rock train while Frank Parkhurst, the popular freight conductor who has been in charge of the Pilot Rock train and the motor car alternately, during the past few weeks has moved back to La Grande to re-enter the freight service. It is reported that Motor Car Conductor M. Cross is also to move to La Grande and that one of the older freight conductors will be promoted to the motor run.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Big Apple Show.

Clinton, Mass., Sept. 14—A big apple show, in which displays of fruit have been entered by the leading horticulturalists of Massachusetts, was opened today in connection with the twenty-second Worcester East Fair. It is probable that the winning exhibitors will send apples to the National Apple Show to be held in Spokane, Wash., this autumn.

Infant Son Buried.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Childers, of near Baker City, brought their infant son, Charles W., who died after a lingering illness, to the Summerville cemetery for burial. The funeral services were held at the cemetery Sept. 9. H. P. Peterson of Summerville officiating.
