N. K. West has just received one of the handsomest delivery wagons ever in La Grande. It is the celebrated Bailey make. It will be painted Sunday and ready for the streets Monday. This wagon has French bevel glass panels. The Bailey puts it in the same class as the high grade goods Mr. West carries.

For a bargain in a piano, dresser and rockers call Ind. 555.

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with a good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America under supervision of R. R. and Wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., Philadelphia, Pa., Memphis, Tenn., Davenport, Ia., Columbia, S. C., or Portland, Ore., according to where you wish to enter.

Business chance in Wallowa—good established wagon and machine shop for sale, $4,000.00 for grounds, buildings and fixtures. Stock at cost and freight. Easy terms. Write T. L. Davis, Wallowa, Ore.

C. G. Holst, contractor on the Wallowa school building, was in the city yesterday stopping at the Foley. Mr. Holst is looking for bricklayers. Any that want work call on him at his expense, Wallowa, Ore.

Grand Reception, hot coffee, with light lunch served free all day Tuesday and Wednesday, September 20 and 21. A practical demonstrator will be with us to demonstrate Legee & Haskins Celebrated high grade Coffee, the best goods sold on this coast. For one week, beginning Sept. 20 and ending Sept. 27, we will give free one-half pound of coffee with each purchase of one and one half pounds. Peerless 40 cents, Menado 35 cents, Oriental Blend, 35 cents. Good Music and a good time. Come! Geddes Bros.

SOCIETY.

Invitations were sent out this morning by the business club for the first dancing party of its series this winter, to be given next Tuesday night. To accentuate the name a royal coat of arms is printed on the invitations—the "coat of arms"—being reproduced above. The dates of the following parties will be announced later in the fall but right now society is awaiting the initial party of the Billikens, for it ushers in a dancing season which promises to be replete with many informal yet popular invitation ballroom functions.

Mrs. C. T. Bacon and Mrs. E. E. Bragg were hostesses Wednesday afternoon to a large number of card adepts when Five Hundred was played at the Bacon home, 1304 Second street. This event was the chief card function of the week. Mrs. Wm. Allison won first honors, Mrs. Gene Moore second, and Mrs. C. P. Newlin, third.

Fay A. Horn and Pearl E. Worthman of Elgin secured a license to wed yesterday by County Clerk Ed. Wright. Both the bride and the groom are well known in Elgin.

The W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Para Thornton. The afternoon was spent in a business session followed by a social hour which was greatly enjoyed by all.
