Revolutionary Quilt Contest

Have You an Old Quilt at Home?

Or a quilt with a history? If so, enter it in our REVOLUTIONARY QUILT CONTEST which begins next Monday and continues all week.

$500.00 IN PRIZES
ARE OFFERED

for the thirty most interesting, oldest, most unique or most artistically made quilts entered in the contest and you will perhaps gain a distinction of owning the most valuable quilt in America.

Get one of the Books of Rules
 THEY'RE FREE FOR THE ASKING

No purchase is necessary to enter your quilts in the contest, and the entries may be seen at the store next week absolutely free.

We want some woman in La Grande to win the first prize, which is now being contested for by women all over the country.

Get a Booklet today
 AND LEARN ALL ABOUT IT

And while at the store ask to see "REDDISODE" COTTON BATTS—stitched together in full quilt size ready or the covering.

The Peoples Store

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means the remedy fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery, bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take equally valuable for children and adults.

Triplet

She tied my bow tie. And I stooped down and kissed her. 'Twas done on the sly— She tied my bow tie. And I wished, with a sigh. That she wasn't my sister. She tied my bow tie. And I stooped down and kissed her. —Cleveland Leader.

A Cross Second

Skinner—find morning, ma'am! Did you ever see anything so unsettled as the weather has been lately? Miss. Bashley—Well, there's your board bill, J.F. Skinner.—My Stories.

Caution

I like little pussy—her coat looks so warm!— And if I don't touch her she'll do me no harm. So I'll not pull her tail or pat her smooth. For fur's full of microbes that might make me dead! —Life.

Alternatives

"Do you think, sir, that I am the man to resign under fire?" "Well, no. But how would you like resigning under a nice coat of whitewash?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

An Earthy Thought

When grim dyspepsia haunts the land Man's disposition, harsh or bland. Doth not depend on what he thinks So much as what he eats and drinks. —Washington Star.

Ahead of Rumor

Dick—There's one thing about Louie—she never repeats stories about her women friends. Ethel—Repeats! No, indeed; she starts them.—Christian Advocate.

Father Homecoming
 Father home at noon With a face serene and steady. Saw a fat man pretty soon. For dinner wasn't ready. —Buffalo Express.

Retained
 "She wouldn't listen to my suit What do you suppose is the reason?" "Your tie is so loud she probably couldn't bear your suit." —Houston Post.

Seen Goss
 Two weeks are long enough, I know. However briefly We may be, the way to blow We save a try. —Detroit Free Press.

Three Clinks
 The best three clinks in the world are at the naval observatory at Washington and the observatories at Greenwich and Berlin. The former two are the best and show a mean deviation of fifteen one-thousandths of a second a day.

Went Too Far
 Yeast—Do you think there is a penalty for lying? Crimonsbeak—Sure! I knew a fellow who dislocated his shoulder while stretching out his hands to show the size of the fish he claimed he had caught!—Yonkers Statesman.

Rise All the Way
 Bridgroom (at the first stopping place)—It's no use, Clara; we can't hide it from people that we are on our honeymoon! Bride—What makes you think so, George? Bridgroom (dejectedly)—Why, here the waiter has brought us rice pudding!

French Beards
 M. Maxime du Camp says in "Souvenirs Literaires" that after the revolution of July, in 1830, the politics of Frenchmen were known by their beards. Supporters of Louis Philippe wore "mutton chop" whiskers, Bonapartists had mustaches and imperial Republicans did not shave at all, and Legitimists wore their beards like a collar, with shaved lips and chin.

Complete equipment for resetting and repairing rubber buggy tires.

Grandview Addition

Is now on the Market

This will be the most slightly addition of La Grande. The only addition to La Grande with building restrictions. The lots are large—nearly a full acre in each lot. We are going to set out some nice apple and cherry trees on each lot.

We are going to make the prices reasonable, and most favorable terms. No interest. No taxes. Come to our office and look at the plat, then get into our automobile and go see the property.
