

"I can tell the swing of a custom-made coat, across the street."

That is how one lady expressed it. And there's a whole volume of truth in that simple phrase. When we fashion your clothes, they are cut and made to your individual proportions without warping or straining the fabric. Consequently they fit you all over. And they fit easily.

We handle the high-grade SHAGKAMAXON

THE TOGGERY A. V. ANDREWS

BOTH TICKETS COUNTED

- (Continued from Page One)
- For Justice Supreme Court, 6 years—
 - Will R. King 257
 - Will King 257
 - For Attorney General—
 - T. H. Crawford 1
 - A. E. Bean 2
 - A. E. Reaves 11
 - Representative Union County—
 - J. A. Masterson.
 - County Judge—
 - B. F. Wilson.
 - Sheriff—
 - Frank Childers.
 - County Clerk—
 - Ed. Wright (Republican).
 - County Recorder—
 - I. R. Snook (Republican).
 - Treasurer—
 - John Frayley (Republican)
 - Commissioner—
 - John Graham Elgin.
 - Cassner—
 - C. T. Bacon (Republican)
 - Surveyor—
 - Arthur Curtiss.
 - Justices of the Peace—
 - W. A. Maxwell, Union.
 - J. A. Gaskel, Alicel.
 - Sam White, Cove.
 - George South, Big Creek.
 - A. C. Glenn, Summerville.
 - Nelson Hackett, Elgin.
 - Three in Island City tied and will be tried out in the clerk's office.
 - Same is true in North Powder.
 - Constables—
 - Nell Steward, Alicel.
 - Big Creek, no election.
 - Cliff Kall, Cove.
 - S. F. Booth, Elgin.
 - Ralph Atkinson, La Grande.
 - Three constables in Island City tied and will be tried out in the Clerk's office.
 - A. C. Rollins, North Powder.
 - Alex Slater, Union.

O'CONNOR GIVES LAD IS ADRIFT

A LOT FREE

WILL GIVE FINE RESIDENCE LOT IN NEW ADDITION FOR BEST NAME.

Contest is Open for All and Costs Nothing to Enter It.

Today Dr. George O'Connor, better known to the people here as "Old Doc", announced that he was going to give a lot in the center of the new addition to La Grande free to the person who would suggest the most appropriate name for the new addition.

Lately the doctor has been reading "Tempest and Sunshine" and a lot more novels in an endeavor to find the name that suits him and he has given up the task to the public. He says he wants a name that will best fit the addition and he believes with this community offering suggestions he can secure one better than if he left it to himself. For that reason he will give away this choice lot.

All answers should be left at the Foley hotel for Dr. O'Connor and the contest will close next Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Tonight pencils will be sharpened and strings of names will be written. No one person can suggest more than three names, but as many members of a family as desire can enter the contest. It costs nothing to enter and if you do not get the lot you are out nothing but a little time.

Monday the addition goes on sale and from the interest being taken in it already it is quite likely most of the lots will be snapped up in a hurry.

LAD IS ADRIFT

BY ORDERS

FATHER SENDS BOY OF SIXTEEN OUT TO WORK.

While Searching for New Home Father Turns Against His Own Son.

Sent out by his father to "hoe his own row" a boy of sixteen years was arrested this morning by Constable Faulk and given an informal hearing as to why he was running "loose" and also given a chance to tell his story of why he is not at home with his parents.

His story is interesting, yet pathetic. He and his father left Salt Lake some time ago and commenced searching for a home. They ended up in Washington and there, the boy says, his father commenced to drink up their profits and soon the boy was ordered to forage for himself. He is now on his way back to Salt Lake where he says his mother and sister live. Officer Faulk found him a temporary position and as soon as he has earned sufficient money to take him home, he will complete his journey.

PAY TAX BEFORE

MUNDAY

WILL BE DELINQUENT AND UNDER PENALTY BY THAT TIME.

Last Half Must Have Been Paid by Next Monday Morning.

Taxes become delinquent after next Saturday night. Consequently all taxpayers who have not paid the second half of their assessment or have not attended to any portion of the 1909 tax, should attend to this important matter before next Monday morning. The laws provide that half of the taxes can be paid before the first Monday in April and the last half by the first Monday in October within attachment of penalty if the last half is not paid by October ten per cent, penalty and 12 per cent interest is added.

California Aviator Hurt.

Santa Ana, Calif., Sept. 29—Charles Hillman, a California aviator is suffering today from injuries received when his bi-plane crumbled in the air and fell 100 feet. It dashed downward on a slant and this saved his life.

Eat Rice on Texas Rice Day.

September 30th has been selected as "Texas Rice Day" on which all citizens are asked to join the people of Texas and other southern rice growing states in eating rice. A delightful menu in which rice forms a prominent part will be served on all dining cars on the Oregon Railroad and Navigation and Southern Pacific Companies, and a special rice desert will be served free.

As is well known, rice is the most healthful and easiest digested food that can be prepared. Interesting literature containing recipes and other valuable information relative to rice and its uses can be obtained by writing to any O. R. & N. or S. P. agent, or to Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Ore.

The Spirit of Idaho, by Arthur W. North; Greater Than Gold. (The harnessing of Western rivers), by Clayton M. Jones.—In October Sunset Magazine. Now on sale on all news stands. 15 cents.

Socialist Convention.

A county convention of the Socialists of Union County will be held in La Grande Wednesday, October 5, 1910, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket. All Socialists are requested to attend.

BIRD F. LEWIS.

Secretary Local, La Grande.

A BAG OF GOLF CLUBS.

They Picture in a Way the Various Phases of Human Society. Devotees of the links will be interested to learn that, in the opinion of a Philosophical student of their ancient game, a bag of golf clubs is a symbol of the various phases of human society. In the front rank you have the driver, smooth polished, elegant, the aristocrat of the clubs, to whose lot fell the stately role in the day's performance. Next in rank is the putter, the quiet, unobtrusive, and most important member of the club, who is the backbone of the team.

LOWER COVE HAS SO CIETY EVENT

SMITH CLAN TO BE UNITED AS AN ASSOCIATION SOON.

Pleasant Day Spent by Members of the Smith Family at Reunion.

One of the numerous divisions of the Smith family met at Frank Cullen's last Sunday Sept. 25th in Lower Cove. It was Mrs. Omi Smith Cullen's birthday and the Smith relations took advantage of the occasion to have a little reunion. There were Charles Smith, wife and children, Lorene Nell, Jud and Robert; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith and two daughters, Nellie and Wilma; Lee Smith and wife, Mrs. Ed. Conley and daughter, Stella; Dick Smith; Mrs. May Hough; Mrs. Thomas Harvey, Mrs. Myrtle Green and Mrs. A. B. Conley with feasting, visiting, recounting experiences of the present times and reminiscences of the past, the happy day soon passed away. The family is going to organize and meet annually the third Sunday in September.

BIG CROWD HEARS COMEDY.

"Going Some" an out and out Comedy, Pleased Large Audience. The Steward was filled last evening with an appreciative audience which had come to hear fun and frolic, and it heard it. There is nothing in "Going Some" but comedy; anyone going to hear anything different came away disappointed. But those who enjoy a hearty laugh found "Going Some" was "some" comedy.

AN ALGERIAN HOTEL.

The Attempt to Describe its Attractions in English. Things are not always as they seem, even in an advertisement. This truth dawned upon Robert Crawford when he was in Algiers, and he tells of the reason for his conclusion in "Reminiscences of Foreign Travel." Mr. Crawford, not being satisfied with his lodgings, procured a copy of the Journal des Etrangers and proceeded to look up a hotel.

After a patient investigation the choice seemed to lie between two. One, according to the notice, possessed "every English comfort" and had "large as well as small apartments. The other—and I was strongly drawn to it—advertised as follows:

Fir Glass House.
Full South.
Mts of large Park.
Tramways to and from town every 10 minutes.

I found the place. To my surprise there was no conservatory or glass house of any kind and no fir trees. As I pondered over the fact the solution suddenly came to me—it was a "first class house," of course. What of the rest of the advertisement? The hotel had a southern aspect and was situated in a park. As for the tramway, that was pure fiction.

Such a Bore to Dress. A belated traveler who was compelled to stay all night in a backwoods cabin says that soon after the frugal meal a tall, gaunt youth of eighteen and an equally sallow and gaunt girl of seventeen, both barefooted, took their hats from wooden pegs in the wall and prepared to go out, whereupon the mother, taking her pipe from between her teeth, said reprovingly:

"Go 'long an' wash your feet, Levi—you and Looey, both! Hain't you 'shamed to go off to an evenin' party without washin' your feet?" They obeyed, but as Levi took the washpan from a bench by the door he said with a grumble:

"I'd 'bout as soon stay home from a party as to have to fix up for it."

Diving Birds.

Water birds which are ordinarily able to float high on the water can also sink at will by expelling the air which is inclosed within the film of feathers surrounding their bodies, thus making them heavier than water. This mechanical trick on the part of diving birds is probably familiar to all who have watched the kingfisher at close quarters and have noted the sudden contraction in the bird's apparent size as it takes the plunge. This is much more easily observed in the case of the starling, which sometimes imitates the kingfisher by plunging into water for food. The shrinkage of the bird in apparent size is very apparent when, after hovering above the surface, it turns downward to dive.—Zoologist.

The Tolltale.

A college girl told how she had been cured of the ugly habit, when a little girl of sticking out her tongue when writing. She was working on a writing lesson one day when the teacher called to her the full length of the room:

"Mary you are making capital L's. How did you know that I was wrong?" the little girl asked.

"I could tell," said the teacher, "by your tongue."—Detroit Free Press.

The Best He Could Do.

Noble Sportsman—Whatever it is I've shot, it makes a most unearthly row. Keeper—Yes; poor Bill ain't got a musical voice, 'as 'e? But I heard him say he was going to take singing lessons.—London Tit-Bits.

A Stop Order.

Maud—Tom had me talk into a photograph so he can hear my voice while I'm away. Clara—How lovely! And he can stop the machine!—Puck.

AN ALGERIAN HOTEL.

The Attempt to Describe its Attractions in English. Things are not always as they seem, even in an advertisement. This truth dawned upon Robert Crawford when he was in Algiers, and he tells of the reason for his conclusion in "Reminiscences of Foreign Travel." Mr. Crawford, not being satisfied with his lodgings, procured a copy of the Journal des Etrangers and proceeded to look up a hotel.

After a patient investigation the choice seemed to lie between two. One, according to the notice, possessed "every English comfort" and had "large as well as small apartments. The other—and I was strongly drawn to it—advertised as follows:

Fir Glass House.
Full South.
Mts of large Park.
Tramways to and from town every 10 minutes.

I found the place. To my surprise there was no conservatory or glass house of any kind and no fir trees. As I pondered over the fact the solution suddenly came to me—it was a "first class house," of course. What of the rest of the advertisement? The hotel had a southern aspect and was situated in a park. As for the tramway, that was pure fiction.

Such a Bore to Dress. A belated traveler who was compelled to stay all night in a backwoods cabin says that soon after the frugal meal a tall, gaunt youth of eighteen and an equally sallow and gaunt girl of seventeen, both barefooted, took their hats from wooden pegs in the wall and prepared to go out, whereupon the mother, taking her pipe from between her teeth, said reprovingly:

"Go 'long an' wash your feet, Levi—you and Looey, both! Hain't you 'shamed to go off to an evenin' party without washin' your feet?" They obeyed, but as Levi took the washpan from a bench by the door he said with a grumble:

"I'd 'bout as soon stay home from a party as to have to fix up for it."

Diving Birds.

Water birds which are ordinarily able to float high on the water can also sink at will by expelling the air which is inclosed within the film of feathers surrounding their bodies, thus making them heavier than water. This mechanical trick on the part of diving birds is probably familiar to all who have watched the kingfisher at close quarters and have noted the sudden contraction in the bird's apparent size as it takes the plunge. This is much more easily observed in the case of the starling, which sometimes imitates the kingfisher by plunging into water for food. The shrinkage of the bird in apparent size is very apparent when, after hovering above the surface, it turns downward to dive.—Zoologist.

The Tolltale.

A college girl told how she had been cured of the ugly habit, when a little girl of sticking out her tongue when writing. She was working on a writing lesson one day when the teacher called to her the full length of the room:

"Mary you are making capital L's. How did you know that I was wrong?" the little girl asked.

"I could tell," said the teacher, "by your tongue."—Detroit Free Press.

The Best He Could Do.

Noble Sportsman—Whatever it is I've shot, it makes a most unearthly row. Keeper—Yes; poor Bill ain't got a musical voice, 'as 'e? But I heard him say he was going to take singing lessons.—London Tit-Bits.

A Stop Order.

Maud—Tom had me talk into a photograph so he can hear my voice while I'm away. Clara—How lovely! And he can stop the machine!—Puck.

Lowney's Dainty Candies
Pure and Delicious

For years the name LOWNEY has stood for all that was purest and most wholesome in confectionary. The products of this house are as good today as ever.

We receive them in small quantities and often enough to insure business.

We have the popular Variety Chocolates, Bon Bons and small packages.

Wright Drug Co.
The Reliable Druggists

BUYS LOTS AND WILL BUILD

THREE LOTS ON MAIN TO BE BUILDING SITES.

Eighty-Acre Farm in Mt. Glenn Changes Hands Through Currey Agency.

Mr. A. C. Huntington yesterday purchased three lots on Main street from J. K. Romig. These are desirable building tracts, close in and it is the expectation of the purchaser to improve them this fall or next spring. The Geo. H. Currey Real Estate agency put through this deal, also sold the Hyrum Williams 80-acre farm in Mt. Glenn for $8,000 to John M. Chapman, of this city.

Construction of modern cottages on the Huntington lots within the next few months is the expectation of the purchaser.

Robberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is today the best known medicine for the relief and cure of bowel ailments. It cures griping, diarrhoea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first unnatural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults.

LOWER COVE HAS SO CIETY EVENT

SMITH CLAN TO BE UNITED AS AN ASSOCIATION SOON.

Pleasant Day Spent by Members of the Smith Family at Reunion.

One of the numerous divisions of the Smith family met at Frank Cullen's last Sunday Sept. 25th in Lower Cove. It was Mrs. Omi Smith Cullen's birthday and the Smith relations took advantage of the occasion to have a little reunion. There were Charles Smith, wife and children, Lorene Nell, Jud and Robert; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith and two daughters, Nellie and Wilma; Lee Smith and wife, Mrs. Ed. Conley and daughter, Stella; Dick Smith; Mrs. May Hough; Mrs. Thomas Harvey, Mrs. Myrtle Green and Mrs. A. B. Conley with feasting, visiting, recounting experiences of the present times and reminiscences of the past, the happy day soon passed away. The family is going to organize and meet annually the third Sunday in September.

BIG CROWD HEARS COMEDY.

"Going Some" an out and out Comedy, Pleased Large Audience. The Steward was filled last evening with an appreciative audience which had come to hear fun and frolic, and it heard it. There is nothing in "Going Some" but comedy; anyone going to hear anything different came away disappointed. But those who enjoy a hearty laugh found "Going Some" was "some" comedy.

California Aviator Hurt.

Santa Ana, Calif., Sept. 29—Charles Hillman, a California aviator is suffering today from injuries received when his bi-plane crumbled in the air and fell 100 feet. It dashed downward on a slant and this saved his life.

Eat Rice on Texas Rice Day.

September 30th has been selected as "Texas Rice Day" on which all citizens are asked to join the people of Texas and other southern rice growing states in eating rice. A delightful menu in which rice forms a prominent part will be served on all dining cars on the Oregon Railroad and Navigation and Southern Pacific Companies, and a special rice desert will be served free.

As is well known, rice is the most healthful and easiest digested food that can be prepared. Interesting literature containing recipes and other valuable information relative to rice and its uses can be obtained by writing to any O. R. & N. or S. P. agent, or to Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Ore.

The Spirit of Idaho, by Arthur W. North; Greater Than Gold. (The harnessing of Western rivers), by Clayton M. Jones.—In October Sunset Magazine. Now on sale on all news stands. 15 cents.

Socialist Convention.

A county convention of the Socialists of Union County will be held in La Grande Wednesday, October 5, 1910, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket. All Socialists are requested to attend.

BIRD F. LEWIS.
Secretary Local, La Grande.

A BAG OF GOLF CLUBS.

They Picture in a Way the Various Phases of Human Society. Devotees of the links will be interested to learn that, in the opinion of a Philosophical student of their ancient game, a bag of golf clubs is a symbol of the various phases of human society. In the front rank you have the driver, smooth polished, elegant, the aristocrat of the clubs, to whose lot fell the stately role in the day's performance. Next in rank is the putter, the quiet, unobtrusive, and most important member of the club, who is the backbone of the team.

AN ALGERIAN HOTEL.

The Attempt to Describe its Attractions in English. Things are not always as they seem, even in an advertisement. This truth dawned upon Robert Crawford when he was in Algiers, and he tells of the reason for his conclusion in "Reminiscences of Foreign Travel." Mr. Crawford, not being satisfied with his lodgings, procured a copy of the Journal des Etrangers and proceeded to look up a hotel.

After a patient investigation the choice seemed to lie between two. One, according to the notice, possessed "every English comfort" and had "large as well as small apartments. The other—and I was strongly drawn to it—advertised as follows:

Fir Glass House.
Full South.
Mts of large Park.
Tramways to and from town every 10 minutes.

I found the place. To my surprise there was no conservatory or glass house of any kind and no fir trees. As I pondered over the fact the solution suddenly came to me—it was a "first class house," of course. What of the rest of the advertisement? The hotel had a southern aspect and was situated in a park. As for the tramway, that was pure fiction.

Such a Bore to Dress. A belated traveler who was compelled to stay all night in a backwoods cabin says that soon after the frugal meal a tall, gaunt youth of eighteen and an equally sallow and gaunt girl of seventeen, both barefooted, took their hats from wooden pegs in the wall and prepared to go out, whereupon the mother, taking her pipe from between her teeth, said reprovingly:

"Go 'long an' wash your feet, Levi—you and Looey, both! Hain't you 'shamed to go off to an evenin' party without washin' your feet?" They obeyed, but as Levi took the washpan from a bench by the door he said with a grumble:

"I'd 'bout as soon stay home from a party as to have to fix up for it."

Diving Birds.

Water birds which are ordinarily able to float high on the water can also sink at will by expelling the air which is inclosed within the film of feathers surrounding their bodies, thus making them heavier than water. This mechanical trick on the part of diving birds is probably familiar to all who have watched the kingfisher at close quarters and have noted the sudden contraction in the bird's apparent size as it takes the plunge. This is much more easily observed in the case of the starling, which sometimes imitates the kingfisher by plunging into water for food. The shrinkage of the bird in apparent size is very apparent when, after hovering above the surface, it turns downward to dive.—Zoologist.

The Tolltale.

A college girl told how she had been cured of the ugly habit, when a little girl of sticking out her tongue when writing. She was working on a writing lesson one day when the teacher called to her the full length of the room:

WE WANT YOUR Laundry Work...

BOTH PHONES TWO WAGONS

Cherry's New Laundry