

CUPID SCORES A VICTORY

FASHION AND POMP ATTENDS PUBLIC WEDDING LAST NIGHT.

Splendid Equipage Conveys Wedding Party Through Vast Crowd.

Cupid scored a crowning victory in La Grande last night when Clyde Robinson and Miss Vergie Bell, both of Cove, were united in marriage at the fair building last night. Fashion and pomp attended the ceremony and no church wedding was ever solemnized with more fitting sanctity than this one. Rev. W. H. Gibson former pastor of the La Grande Baptist church performed the ceremony. The bride party's entrance at the main door was the signal for the commencement of the bridal march. (Mendelssohn) and an equipage of unusual style conveyed the party through the entire length of the main building. hundreds upon hundreds of admiring eyes gazing with admiration. Mr. Levy's team of Shetlands, hitched to a brake, and driven by Miss Constance Hall, daughter of Ex-Mayor and Mrs. M. K. Hall made a spectacle of more than passing beauty. At the dais, decorated and planned by local ladies, pretty little flower girls awaited the party. Miss Adelyne Scroggin and Miss May Fan Vurpliat officiated in this capacity with perfect poise and meim.

The ceremony itself was short. The officiating pastor spoke briefly of the marriage vow and without the ring and without ritual pronounced them husband and wife. A short prayer and then carnivalism broke out and as the wedding party again forged through the crowd, rice was showered the happy couple over the entire course.

The bride was attended by her husband's sister, and the groom by his wife's brother. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are prominent and popular young people of Cove. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bell who are influential business residents of Cove. Mr. Bell is one of the men in charge of the Cove exhibit at the fair. The groom is the son of the Baptist pastor at Cove. They will be at home in Cove at once to their many friends.

The Last Chance.
Tonight is the last night that the public can see the strongest 1/2 that the management of the fair has been able to secure this season. You can see the first performance before going to the Fair.

TWO WEDDINGS TRANSPIRE

W. B. SARGENT AND MISS AIKINE LEAVE FOR THE EAST.

Cap. Tuttle and Popular Imbler Lady Were Married Here Last Evening.

Aside from the public wedding last night, there were two other weddings last evening of prominence. W. B. Sargent, president of the La Grande Investment company, a prominent Elk, booster and fair director, was married at 4 o'clock to Miss Miona Aikine, daughter of Mrs. J. H. Aikine. Rev. W. S. Seeman officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Aikine departed for the east last evening and their first stop will be at Omaha. They intend to be gone about six weeks.

Cap. Tuttle, a well known basketball player of Imbler, was married at the Fitzgerald home last evening to Miss Ada Andrews also of Imbler. Mr. Seemann officiated. Both these young people are well known locally and have an extremely large number of friends in their home town.

Catch the Cold

In a strict sense you do not catch cold, but rather the cold catches you.

It catches you when your vitality is low, when the circulation is impeded by sudden draughts of cold air, etc.

The right thing to do is to reverse things and catch the cold in the start and stop it before it has you firmly caught.

You can do this with
