Corn Crop Report.

Washington, Oct. 7—Experts of the Department of Agriculture today practically completed their report on the condition of corn and other crops but the figures will not be made public until Monday at 2:30 p. m. Washington time. The report will cover the condition, either on Oct. 1 or time of harvest of corn, buckwheat, potatoes, tobacco, flax seed, apples and rice, giving yield per acre total production, (preliminary estimate), and quality of spring wheat, oats and barley. A supplemental report will be issued on the following day, giving a review of the crop situation, which will include the crops not given on Monday.

ELGIN STRONG FOR GALLOWAY.

Every Man From There Sings Praise of Commissioner.

A very noticeable feature of the bunch from Elgin yesterday was the pronounced loyalty to their fellow townsman, Cecil Galloway, county commissioner. They all talked "fair" but would wind up by saying something in praise of Galloway who is a candidate for commissioner this fall. No recommendation is so strong as the one from home people and Mr. Galloway has the backing of the whole north end of the county. What Elgin people say is taken as correct and the remainder of Union county is perfectly satisfied to take Galloway on his record and what his home folks say about him. In fact, there could not be stronger praise for any man.
