People are here from Oklahoma with a view to buying Grande Ronde land. Oklahoma has been good for several years but right now it shows indications of standing still for a while because it was overbuilt to start with.

Did you notice the strawberries, fresh from the vine, on exhibition at the exposition grounds? Well, these berries were raised just outside the city limits of La Grande.

Would it not be interesting to see an exhibit sheet showing the expense of the state of Oregon each year for the past ten years, and for what the money has been spent?

The Union people took charge of La Grande yesterday afternoon just as an exhibit sheet showing the expense would. And it is a fine thing for friends and neighbors to meet and enjoy the world together.

One of the interesting exhibits at the fair is a horse 70 years old. It is owned by H. P. Lewis. But it is an old fashioned hoppy horse that he made himself and many children have taken their first ride on its back.

How many times have you been to the fair. Twice each day, of course. That is the only way to attend and do it properly.

BOWERMAN COMING TUESDAY.

Republican Standard Bearer to be in La Grande Next Week.

In messages from the Republican Central committee at Portland, it is stated today that Jay Bowerman, candidate for governor of the Republican ticket will be in La Grande Tuesday and the local republicans are rounding up a crowd for the lecture.

He is to address an audience at the fair grounds at about 8:30 a'clock, dealing with the issues of the present campaign.

WOMAN, LOVELY WOMAN.

But Alas, Without Beautiful Hair No Woman Can Be Beautiful.

A great many newspapers and magazines are printing pages on how a woman can be beautiful and keep beautiful.

And all of them, as you can see for yourself, admits that no woman can be really beautiful unless she has lustrous and luxuriant hair.

The women of Paris are, as a rule, beautiful, and a careful American observer who has traveled much claims that their beauty is due to their knowledge of how to keep their hair luxuriant, which they do by using a superior hair tonic.

Many American women are as wise as their French sisters, and that is why Parisian Sage, the quick acting and greatest of all hair restorers and tonics, is now having such a tremendous sale in America.

We ask every woman reader of this paper to give this marvelous hair beautifier a thorough trial, and we gladly make them this liberal offer:

Get a large 50 cent bottle from the Newlin Drug Co. today. Use it as directed for two weeks. If at the end of that time you are not satisfied with results, say so to the Newlin Drug Co. and they will give you your money back.

Besides being a delightful and invigorating hair dressing, Parisian Sage will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp, or money back.

Mail orders filled, all charges prepaid by the American maker, Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.

SOCIETY

A pretty wedding took place last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Deborah Akine, when Miss Mollie Gertrude Akine and Mr. Wm. B. Sargeant were united in marriage by the Rev. W. S. Seaman, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The following signed the guest book. Dr. and Mrs. N. Molitor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schilke, Miss Frederica Schulke, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Benham, Mrs. George Hansen, Mrs. F. R. Swaney, Mrs. Jean R. Moore, W. J. Church, Misses Greta Jackson, Viola Benham, Ethel Wright, Donna Geddes, Anna Roesch, Bess Bohnenkamp, Erma Alkine, Mrs. Deborah Alkine and Master Lynn Wright.

Officers of the Neighborhood club, elected some time ago, were installed with fitting ceremony last Tuesday afternoon. Light refreshments, an informal reception, an instrumental solo by Mrs. Carlock and a vocal solo by Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn constituted the program. The officers installed during the afternoon were: Mrs. J. K. Wright, president, Miss Margaret Anson, vice president, Mrs. Albert Hunter, secretary, Mrs. W. A. Worstell corresponding secretary (re-elected) Mrs. J. T. Williamson treasurer (re-elected) Mrs. J. D. Stout, librarian, Mrs. E. Polack, director to succeed to Mrs. Stella Ingle. Mrs. Polack is the retiring president. The club meets two weeks hence and takes up the study of some of Shakespeare's work.

Dr. and Mrs. M. K. Hall last evening entertained complimentary to Miss Florence McCall and Mr. Archie Bacon. The guests were entertained with games of a unique character and light refreshments were served later in the evening. In a silhouette contest Mrs. H. M. Bay won first prize and in a nursery rhyme contest C. B. Clarke won first prize and Miss Etta Foley, the consolation prize. The host and hostess had prepared an excellent series of entertainments and the affair has been pronounced extremely delightful by all who attended. About twenty were present.

A new year's work for the Presbyterian Aid society was inaugurated this week when the members met at the Presbyterian Manse and elected officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. Frank Baker was chosen president, Mrs. J. T. Richardson, vice president, Mrs. C. H. Upton secretary and Mrs. Mrs. Frank Jackson treasurer. Light refreshments were served and everything to make the initial meeting pleasant was done by the hostess.

The Tuesday musical meets next Tuesday afternoon in a rather informal manner to consider the specific line of work to be carried out for the ensuing year. The members will be quizzed as to what they know of the American composers as Americans who pen music are entitled to be studied almost exclusively this year. The club has a very interesting series of meetings outlined for the coming year's work.

Last Saturday evening, Miss Beth Hesse, aged seven years, gave a little party to some of her juvenile friends in honor of the anniversary of her birthday. It was an unusually well-planned affair. Those present were: Genevieve Hanna, Margaret King, Adalrose Childers, Hazel Isaac, Ina Leach, Helen Leach, Nellie Jackson, Dolores Shaffer, Dolores Casey, Ed-rise McGuire, "Bud" Thiesen, Walton Shea, Everet Hesse, Henry Canfield, Willie Hesse and Val Rinehart.

An in formal banquet was tendered Wednesday evening at the Model in honor of Archie Bacon, son of Doctor and Mrs. C. T. Bacon, who is to be married next week. The dinner was served at 7 o'clock and was attended by: Archie Bacon, Leo Herring, Frank Conners, Roscoe Doane, Charles Conkey, Nate Ardrey of Portland, A. W. Nelson, Forest Ivanhoe, Walter Francis, Ralph Reynolds, Arlie Ray, Harvey M. Bay, "Kraz" Cronise of Albany, Oscar Jackson and "Jerry" McKennon.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church had their annual meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. B. G. Fritts and elected the following officers to serve for a year: Mrs. A. E. Jones, president; Mrs. Fritts, vice president; Mrs. W. R. Knowles, treasurer; Mrs. Cora Dawson is president of the work committee. The next meeting will be held at the parsonage Wednesday.

See the Hebdomadary for further announcements.

The engagement of Miss Vesta Kerr daughter of President and Mrs. W. J. Kerr of the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, to Ralph E. Reynolds, son of J. E. Reynolds of this city, is announced at Portland. The wedding will be solemnized in December, and will be the happy culmination of a college courtship that commenced when Mr. Reynolds was a senior in that college.

Cards were superceded this week by weddings, showers, receptions and the fair. As a result of these activities in society circles the card parties were cancelled and will be resumed again next week.
