AUTO PARADE IS POPULAR

TOTAL OF CARS LIMITED BUT THE SHOW IS MAGNIFICENT.

Plenty of Fire Works Helps to Make the Show one of Much Beauty.

While a mere handful of only twenty-two cars were numbered in the automobile parade last night, the pyrotechnic features added to the show made by the automobiles and entertained a large audience on Adams avenue last night with satisfaction. It was perhaps due as much as anything to the fact that there was a heavy dust storm prevalent that more cars did not show up for the dress parade, but even as it was there was a style and a class about the show which easily branded La Grande as an automobile town. With the exception of cars from Perry and Island City, the string was made up of local cars entirely. Skyrockets, fuzes and red fire lighted the line of march as it buzzed along the pavement on Adams avenue. The most striking picture made by the paraders was when the cavalcade was viewed from in front, each car carrying four front lights, which made a total of 88 lights, which in turn, augmented by the fireworks from the sidewalks, made a very attractive picture.

The interest shown demonstrates that automobile parades are popular and that more of them would not be amiss.

Two 1911 models were presented in the parade and from these classy machines, the styles presented dwindled down to the handmade auto belonging to Robert Plant. He made it himself.

WINTER HORSE RACING.
Jacksonville and Juarez, Two Popular Tracks, to Hold Long Meetings.
Now that the pessimists have placed an air of finality upon the life of racing in and about New York it might be of moment to announce that the winter tracks, or, rather, representatives of Juarez, Mexico; Jacksonville, Fla. and Oakland, Cal., are mighty busy bees. Monerief park, Jacksonville, will throw open its gates Nov. 1, to remain open 100 or more racing days. Juarez, owing to improvements, will not be ready for occupancy until Nov. 24, the original date. However, Oakland, with all the astuteness of the Tom Williams brought to play, will attempt to pre-empt the start by opening up Nov. 12. This assures the horsemen plenty of winter racing.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

EVERY time you are knocked over get up and go at it again. After awhile you will get a name for never giving up.

Hope for the best until something better turns up.

A firm determination has its work to do when it meets up with a run of bad luck.

Don't talk about your evil fortune. The world is fond of cheer up stories.

Shirk and the world shirks with you; work and you toil alone.

Don't tell your story to every ear that is handy. Some may charge for rental.

There may be exemplary men who are not on the level. They may be engaged on an inclined plane with upward tendencies.

Some experiences are so bitter that it is a shame not to get some good out of them.

Not being able to appreciate your few blessings is what makes you such a hard kicker.

One woman is suing for a divorce because her husband can't earn enough to buy her puffs enough to keep her hat on straight.

Mournful Autumn.
The melancholy days have come,
And everything is out of plumb.
The wind comes wailing from the west
And searches out the summer vest.
Man buttons up his coat and signs
As sand and cordwood fill his eyes:
"This sort of weather is a crime.
Come back, you good old summer time!"

The breezes play a mournful tune,
A wail for the departed June.
The furnace gives a soulful wheeze
And says, "Some fuel, if you please."
The air, a heavy ashen gray,
Mocks at the one who would be gay.
And o'er the meadows sear and brown
Five feet of woe have settled down.

Dead leaves around the doorsteps creep,
The cheer up man goes home to weep.
The one who never cracks a smile
Feels that the world has swiped his style.
A lone and solitary crow
Caws out a prophecy of snow,
And over countryside and town
Grim visaged autumn settles down.

Deliberate.
"Your husband seems to like to work in the garden."
"Does it seem that way?"
"He is out there a good deal. Does he accomplish much?"
"Well, a moving picture man who tried to get him when he was real busy might go to sleep on the job and not spoil the picture."

But Not a Prohibitionist.
"We are going to take Brown out to camp with us."
"That's a good idea."
"Think so?"
"Yes."
"Why?"
"Because in case of a wet season you will always have something dry in camp."

Bad Taste.
"I don't like sarcastic people."
"Don't you?"
"No."
"Hurts, does it?"
"Tisn't that at all."
"What then?"
"Makes me so mad that I did not say he meant things first."

Civilized.
No longer do the heathen rage
Or pause to throw a fit.
They take their troubles into court
And get the worst of it.

Where Pirates Swung.
"He has been looking up his family tree."
"And what did he find?"
"What do you suppose?"
"A yardarm."

WRONG FIRM CREDITED.
Grande Ronde Orchard Company Should Have Been Given Credit.
Through a typographical error yesterday, the Thronson Fruit company was given credit for posting the $50 apple prize money at the fair which was won by C. H. Conkey. It should have been the Grande Ronde Orchard company.

CATARRH SUFFERERS.
Good Things to Know.
If you now own a Hyomei hard rubber inhaler, the Newlin Drug Co. wants you to know that they will sell you a bottle of HYOMEI for only 50 cents.
Remember this, all who suffer with catarrh—a bottle of HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-mee) is put up in a separate package and sold for 50 cents to accommodate the vast army of people who already own a Hyomei inhaler.
They will sell it to you at that price and give you the opportunity to begin at once to rid yourself of vile catarrh and the snuffling, hawking and spitting that go with it.
Many people through years of neglect have let catarrh get a strong hold upon them. Some of these people unreasonably think that one bottle of HYOMEI ought to cure them.
No matter how chronic your catarrhal troubles, HYOMEI is guaranteed by the NEWLIN DRUG CO. to cure them if you give it half a chance. Just breathe it, that's all, and its healing, soothing antiseptic properties will make you feel better in a day.
If you own an inhaler get a 50 cent bottle of HYOMEI today. If you do not own a Hyomei inhaler, ask for a $1.00 outfit, which includes inhaler.
