LARGE CREW AT FACTORY

SIX-WEEKS' RUN CONTEMPLATED BY THE MANAGEMENT.

Found Two Miles From Surface. Grade as to Quality as Well.

With 125 men employed and room for a few more, the Amalgamated Sugar factory commenced its 1910 run yesterday morning and for a period of about six weeks will maintain a day and night shift continually. The beets now on hand are sufficient to keep the wheels turning until more come in and as the best fields from Wallowa county are turning out a large supply, it is presumed that the run will be considerably longer than is usually the case.

In addition to being large quantities of beets, there is a noticeable improvement in the quality and from every indication the output will be a high class product throughout.

Not Guilty.

"Is your husband a bibblomancer?" asked Mrs. Oldcastle as she was being permitted to view the treasures in the library of the new neighbor.

"Mercy sakes, no," replied Mrs. Packenham. "He never bibbles a bit. Oh, of course I don't say that he wouldn't take a little at his meals if the rest was done it, but that's as far as he ever goes in them kind of things."—Chicago Record-Herald.

T. A. RINEHART,
Assessor for Union County, Oregon.
Daily Sept. 30 Oct. 17.

Dysentery is a dangerous disease but can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine epidemics of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened, it is pleasant to take.

AWARDS FOR BEST DOGS MADE

INTEREST MANIFESTED ENCOURAGING TO PROMOTERS.

Next Year Will See Bigger and Better Bench Shows in This City.

In a bench show characterized by four or five entries in each class almost invariably, and where the keenest competition imaginable was rampant throughout, twelve different classes were awarded prizes yesterday afternoon at the county fair. The awarding of prizes ended the show as far as governing rules were concerned, but several of the dogs were left on show today as a special attraction. John Jordan, the man engineering the show affirmed when the judging was done that the dogs had paid their own expenses, eliminating the heavy expense to the fair committee which existed last year. "Not alone will there be a bench show next year but it will be doubly interesting" asserted Mr. Jordan further. It is certain that he has the correct notion of things for the bench show has been one of the most popular attractions at the fair.

The Ancient Pest.

On the level, it is high time
We arose and cut out fly time.
And I hope 'twill be in my time
That the awful blow will fall
On the pesky little slinger
Who bores in and takes his dinner
On the fatter and the thinner
As he makes an evening call.

Very truly it is awful
That the creature should be lawful
I have often got my craw full
When I stretched to take a nap.
On my pate, rotund and glassy,
Though admitted to be classy,
Trilled the little varmint sassy
And then deftly dodged a slap.

We are told by doctors skillful
That he carries round a bill full
Of the kind of germs that kill full
Many a man before his time.
All too long with him we trifle,
We should get the family rifle
And with lead should fill him nigh full
Ending thus his life of crime.

Sending a Substitute.

"I heard a man planning to break into your house tonight."
"Good. Let him alone."
"But he is a burglar."
"I don't care what he is. He will get there about the time I usually arrive in the morning, and never fear but what my wife will tend to him."

How Could He?

"She says her husband won't listen to reason."
"Well, he won't."
"He must be fierce."
"Meek as Moses."
"Then why won't he?"
"There isn't any wisdom at home to listen to."

Explained.

"Pa."
"Yes, dear."
"What is allmony?"
"Allmony?"
"Uh-huh."
"It is the booby prize in the matrimonial game."
