

DARROW COMES SATURDAY

FAMOUS LABOR COUNSEL WILL SPEAK SATURDAY NIGHT.

Much Interest Attached to Well Known Attorney's Coming.

Clarence Darrow, of Chicago, who was leading counsel for the United Mine Workers of America before the arbitration commission appointed by President Roosevelt to settle the great anthracite coal strike in Pennsylvania in 1902, which resulted in victory for the miners, and who later appeared as leading counsel in the defense of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, officers of the Western Federation of Miners, when they were on trial in Idaho, will speak in the Steward Opera house next Saturday night on the "Curse of Prohibition."

No attorney is better known to laboring men of the United States than Mr. Darrow. His life has been devoted to the study of social and industrial condition of wage earners, particularly and the human family generally. Being a student and an authority on these questions in addition to being a good lawyer, John Mitchell, then president of the United Mineworkers, recommended the Chicago attorney to his executive board as the most available counsel in the country to present the miners' side of the strike to the arbitration commission.

Darrow and Mitchell sat side by side through the long weeks of the hearing, never missing a session or allowing the coal carrying railroads to place one point before the commission without combatting it with the miners' argument for better conditions.

Since the anthracite strike Darrow has figured prominently in many big industrial disputes. His acquaintance in the west spread through his successful defense of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone.

CONNORDALE IS MEETING WITH POPULARITY

NEW ADDITION IN DEMAND AND LOTS SELL RAPIDLY.

Improvements and Restricted District Help Make the New Tract One That is Sought After.

When old Doctor O'Connor, who has peddled pills all over Union and Baker counties, decided to put the Connordale addition on the market he little knew the interest he was going to awaken in a local way. Alive to the knowledge that La Grande was outgrowing her premises the old man thought he would stretch out the residential district, but he did not imagine that such a strong desire existed here for desirable residence lots.

Connordale has now been in the people's mouths for a couple of weeks and the request for lots is enormous. Fifty per cent. of the people of La Grande want homes. There is that percentage living in rented rooms, rented cottages or boarding at hotels. Heretofore one objected to coming to La Grande because houses were so hard to get. And now that there is a chance to get good building lots on easy terms provided restrictions are followed many of these people see a home of their own with well kept lawn out in Connordale.

La Grande's Steady Growth.

This paper has often told the story of growth in La Grande, but it is one of those continued serial stories which is always ripe and each day shows another chapter. All the big institutions are increasing their number of men employed, the railroad has long ago given out the information that La Grande was to be the railroad supply point east of the mountains, new business is being started almost daily, all of which lays more stones in the already solid foundation of this city's future.

Nothing can prevent this from being the Spokane of Oregon for the lead over other cities is now too great. And the Connordale addition, lying as it does practically in the center of the city, offers not only the desirable place for homes but the chance for investment that is hard to beat.

ROAD'S ADVENT AWAITED

FLORA COUNTRY SEES FUTURE PROSPERITY ON NEW LINE.

Stockmen Assert Railroad Will Bring Much Capital to Paradise.

David Kuhn of Paradise, W. B. Fordyce of Flora and C. A. Fitzpatrick of Lostine returned this morning from Portland where they took four carloads of hogs. Mr. Kuhn, in speaking of the trip, says they were very fortunate in striking such good markets as they got 10 cents per pound on foot. Mr. Fordyce and Mr. Kuhn are prosperous stock raisers and farmers of the Paradise valley, and they are found in their praise of that country.

Await New Railroad.
They say that if the proposed railroad goes down the Grande Ronde from Rondowa that it will increase the land values and cause a vast amount of new capital to be invested in the stock business. Mr. Fitzpatrick will move from Lostine to Enterprise in the near future.

Notice.
There will be a special meeting of the Lyle Tuesday Musical next Saturday afternoon for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the state federation.

THIESEN HURT INTERNALLY

SENT TO PORTLAND HOSPITAL TO BE OPERATED ON.

Will Not Be Able to Leave Hospital Until the Middle of November.

Engineer Pete Thiesen, the oldest engineer on the mountain division was operated upon at Portland two days ago to relieve an internal injury resulting from a slight accident while running on the East end early in the week. In turning a lever Mr. Thiesen injured himself internally in some way and was hurried to Portland immediately. He withstood the operation fairly well, but Mrs. Thiesen has gone to Portland and reached there this morning. Miss Ruby Thiesen goes Saturday night.

While it is not believed the injury was critical it will nevertheless require about a month's time for the patient to be able to leave the hospital.

WISDOM GETS 3 YEAR TERM

ACCOMPLICE SENTENCED TO TEN BUT IS PAROLED.

Horse Stealing Ends in Heavy Punishment Being Inflicted.

Fred Wisdom and Eades, his accomplice, convicted of stealing horses from James Moss, were given sentence this morning in circuit court by Judge J. W. Knowles. Wisdom was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary and Eades to ten. Eades however was paroled while Wisdom was not. This is the culmination of a series of escapades in which Wilson has figured in Union county. He is of Baker City originally but has lived there only occasionally of late years.

Circuit court is taking a recess at this time. The Judge will go to Enterprise soon to conduct the Wallowa term of circuit court there. The jurors may be recalled any time and consequently it is indefinite just when the murder cases will be resumed in the local court.

The Austrian who was given three trials was finally convicted last night. The first two juries hung but the third reached a verdict as the complaint was slightly amended. He was accused of assault with a dangerous weapon, an Irishman being the victim of the assault.

STOCKHOLDERS CALLED

IMPORTANT SESSION WILL BE HELD NEXT MONDAY NIGHT.

A Half Dozen Salient Questions Will be Acted on at That Time.

Stockholders of the Union County Exposition association have been called to meet next Monday evening at 8 o'clock when many very important matters will be finally settled and disposed of. To begin with, a full and complete financial statement will be ready at that time, and on this report will hinge the future action of the association. To decide if the fair just closed is to be the last one, or if the fairs are to be continued, to take action on outstanding notes, and the like, are but some of the very important things to be decided at that time.

Manager Church is anxious that every member who can be present as the matters outlined are but a few of the things that must be settled at that time.

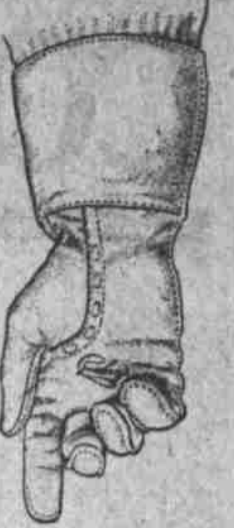

A greater portion of the bills were audited last night at a meeting of the directors of the association.

It may also be said the time has been extended for bids on the tabernacle building until then and anyone wishing to purchase the structure should send in a sealed bid for same.

Speakers "Knock."

Joseph, Oct. 13—(Special)—Oswald West, Slater, Hugh McClain, Turner Oliver talked to the people of Joseph a few minutes this evening. J. A. French and Edgar Marvin also democratic candidates of Enterprise were with the party.

R. A. Watson representing the Portland Journal was keeping tab on the above. Dr. G. L. Biggers, L. C. Smith and Todd Rhinehart of La Grande, were in Joseph with the crowd. All went to Enterprise for the evening. Their speeches were more in the nature of knocks than on the issues. Jerry Rusk was invited to make a few remarks which he did to the point.
