MANY RED CAPS ARE READY

LAST IMPORTANT CATHOLIC EVENT FOR OVER A YEAR.

Next Consistory Will Award Cardinal Caps to Many Foreigners.

Rome, Oct. 14.—It is expected that the next consistory will be held in about a month, and it will be the last for over a year, since no church functions are scheduled for 1911. Next year the Italian government will celebrate the semi-centennial of the united nation, and the Vatican will be kept in the background by the Pope, who considers the celebration as in some measure an insult to the church. It is admitted here that the church faces a crisis, owing to the rapid growth of rationalism in the Latin nations. While Protestantism has made small gains in Catholic strongholds, agnosticism and atheism, with anti-clericalism as their political expression, are gaining daily thousands of adherents in Italy, Spain, France and Portugal. The Pope is deeply grieved by the Ferrer demonstrations of yesterday, when some of the greatest men of Europe joined in expressions of antagonism, not only to Catholicism, but to all revealed religions. Close observers of religious affairs in Europe say that the time is not far distant when Catholics and Protestants will have to join forces if Christianity is to be preserved. Agnosticism, once the profession of the "intellectuals" alone, has now found recognition in all classes of European society, from the workman to—it is whispered—at least two monarchs. Although nominally an adherent of the church, King Victor Emmanuel is said to be in thorough sympathy with the modernists and rationalists, and so democratic are his economic ideals that he is often called "the Socialist King."

Those slated to receive the red hat at the coming consistory are Mgr. Lugari, Mgr. Bisleti, and Mgr. Guistini, of Rome; Mgr. Bello, of Lisbon; Mgr. Delmonte, of Vienna; Mgr. Amlette, of Paris; Fr. Cormiser, head of the Dominicans, and Fr. Ehrle, librarian of the Vatican.

Must be Above Suspicion.
Kidney and bladder ailments are so serious in their consequences, and if unchecked so often fatal that any remedy offered for their cure must be above suspicion. Foley's Kidney Pills contain no harmful drugs, and have successfully stood a long and thorough test. Hill's Drug Store.

In buying a cough medicine, don't be afraid to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is sure to follow. Especially recommended for coughs, colds and whooping cough.
