

MAYOR IS HOME FROM SOUTH

VISITED SEVERAL PEOPLE KNOWN HERE WHILE AWAY.

Attended Convention and Toured California Visiting Popular Scenes.

Mayor and Mrs. F. L. Myers are at home from their southern trip where Mr. Myers attended the American Bankers' association at Los Angeles and took several side trips. While the tourists visited all the prominent benches and places of interest, the chief points visited from a local standpoint was a trip to the O. K. Kincaid orange ranch a short distance out of Los Angeles. Mr. Kincaid is a former La Grande man and is well known here. His friends will be interested in knowing that he was married last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyers were also the guests with Senator Thomas McConnell out of Sacramento. The convention itself lasted but two days and was visited by some 2000 bankers and friends who were interested.

At the conclusion of the convention Mr. and Mrs. Meyers carried out a long itinerary. The trip to San Pedro was made by steamer, but the return trip home via Portland was made by train.

Death of Mrs. Polly Swiger.
Mrs. Polly Swiger, aged 81 years and 26 days, died at the Swiger residence near Union, Oregon, Sunday, October 9, 1910, and was buried from the Presbyterian church Wednesday, October 12 at 11 a. m., relates the Union Republican.

Polly Wilkinson was born in Jackson county, Ohio, September 13, 1829, and her early life was passed in the vicinity of Peoria, Ill. She was married to N. Swiger in 1851, and in 1858 moved from Illinois to Nebraska.

In May, 1864 Mr. and Mrs. Swiger moved to Oregon, arriving in the Grande Ronde Valley, October 3 of that year. From June 1865, to October 1869, they lived in Willamette valley, after which they moved to the Grande Ronde Valley and have lived here since, spending the time from 1869 to 1889 in High Valley, and since that time at the Swiger home near Union.

Seven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Swiger, four of whom are living, namely: William, of Union; Mrs. Viola Cochran of Washington; Nora Rumbley, of Pine Valley, and Elmer Swiger, of Union. Four brothers and one sister survive Mrs. Swiger.

SOCIETY

Formal weddings are not frequent occurrences in La Grande and therefore the wedding solemnized last Wednesday at 8 o'clock at the Mrs. J. M. McCall home on Washington avenue stands out as the most fashionable ceremony of the season. About sixty guests witnessed the marriage of Miss Florence McCall, daughter of Mrs. J. M. McCall to Mr. Archie Bacon. Formally was closely observed, and augmented by fashionable gowns worn both by principals and guests, the event was easily the most fashionable wedding of the year.

The bridal party was assembled by a wedding march (Lohengren's) played by Miss Runa Bacon. The bride was accompanied by her sister, Miss Marjorie McCall as bridesmaid and the groom was accompanied by Walter Francis. Miss McCall wore elegant and costly cream embroidered veil over satin made semi princess en train, trimmed with hand embroidered bands of satin and pearl ornaments. The veil was caught with pearls and lilies of the valley. She carried a marriage ring of flowers made of bride's rosebuds and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore a beautiful pink chiffon gown and pink tulle veil and carried "My Maryland" rose buds.

Rev. W. S. Seaman, D. D., of the Presbyterian church recited the impressive Presbyterian wedding ceremony using the ring with all its effectiveness. At the conclusion, Miss Henrietta Foley sang the benediction. The decorations were in complete keeping with the general elaborateness of the affair. The living rooms were beautiful with smilax, autumn leaves, pink and white asters. The dining room was prettily decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and ferns. Refreshments were served by Misses Marjorie McCall and Runa Bacon and consisted of grape cups, Frau wafers and cafe a la Delmonico. Among the sixty guests attending were the following out-of-town; Mrs. J. C. Ardrey and Mr. Nate Ardrey of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Berry of Portland and Mrs. Joyce McCall Seitz and son, Gifford, of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Bacon leave in a week's time for Northern Montana where they will make their future home for the time being, living on a claim won by Mr. Bacon during the recent Indian land opening here.

In Mr. and Mrs. Bacon is reflected a type of the city's popular young people. Both have lived here always and enjoy the friendship and esteem of everyone. The bride is an especially accomplished and attractive young lady and by the way is another of the popular La Janness members who have been married within the past year. Mr. Bacon is an O. R. & N. machinist but has answered the call of the farm and for a few years at least will till the Montana soil. Both are La Grande High school products, and while the bride has excelled in music and elocution and always a leader in her social sphere, the groom has attained renown on the football field.

Miss Zoe Bragg last evening entertained a large number of young friends complimentary to Miss Edith French of Baker City. The usual routine of parties was departed from and pictures of all the guests, taken when they were tiny little babies, were chief attractions. Miss Mary Pennington and Chas. Harding were prize winners at guessing who the pictures represented of those present. A delicious three-course luncheon was served. Music by Miss Newman of San Francisco and Miss May Neill of this city constituted the evening's entertainment. The guests who attended the distinctly unique affair were:

Misses Edith French of Baker City, Lillian Newman of San Francisco, Runa Bacon, Lillian Baker, Gladys Oesterling, Ethel Wright, Jeanette Smith, Mary Pennington, May Neill, Wilma Rinehart, Miss Allen, Miss Wall and Mrs. Dr. Hall; Messrs. Hal Bohnenkamp, Russel Ralston, Lee Reynolds, Grover Grimmett, James Garrity, Merlin Battler, Stanley Carpy, Frank Earls, Charles Harding, Geo. Currey and Harold Grady.

A reception was given at the home of W. F. Landrum this week by the members of the C. O. P. E. in honor of Polk E. Mays, the popular mail clerk on the Joseph-La Grande branch who was recently appointed postmaster of Joseph and will leave the coming week to take up his duties. After spending the evening playing games a four-course luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kimmel, Mr. and Mrs. George Powell, Mr. and Mrs. E. Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Ball, Miss Edith Bork, Miss Irene and Alice Snook Don Scott and Mrs. Jane Jackson and Polk E. Mays.

Mrs. A. T. Hill and Mrs. E. Polack will be Neighborhood club delegates to the annual state federation of Women's club convention at The Dalles on the 25th of this month. Mrs. Hill was elected last Tuesday and Mrs. Polack is a delegate by right of office, the retiring president always receiving that honor. This federations is the same one which met in La Grande two years ago, and it is an important feature of La Grande's club work to attend these annual conventions.

Miss Margaret Anson and Mrs. Robert Newlin entertained the evening division of the Kaffee Klatch last evening at the Anson home. Franc Wilhelm won the gentleman's prize and Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp captured the ladies' award.

The German Verein of La Grande will meet tomorrow at 2 o'clock at the K. of P. Hall over the Red Cross drug store. All Germans are invited to attend and members especially urged to be present.

The next, and the opening meeting by the way, of the Tuesday Musicales will take place a week from next Tuesday. Mrs. E. C. Moore will be the leader and the composer studied will be Chadwick.

The Tuesday Musicales meets this afternoon to elect its quota of delegates to the state federation at The Dalles this month. Two regular and two alternate delegates will be named.

Mrs. H. C. Grady entertained the Five Hundred club Thursday afternoon. The honors were won by Mrs. Gene Moore.

SEARCHING COUNTIES.
Detectives and Police Are Working Under Cover on Times Case.

San Francisco, Oct. 15—The trail of three men suspected of the Times dynamiting was scorching today by Pinkerton detectives, employed by General Otis. The search is based on information given by Mrs. D. H. Ingersoll and the police is getting more secretive every day. They won't tell of their movements.
