

Dr. C. D. Pons

THE EYE AND NERVE SPECIALIST OF SALT LAKE CITY IS NOW AT THE SAVOY HOTEL HOURS 9 a. m. to 12 Noon AND 3 p. m. to 7 p. m. THIS WEEK ONLY TILL FRIDAY.

EXAMINATION FREE.

Entire attention devoted to fitting and grinding glasses for difficult and stubborn cases. Did you ever have your eyes fitted right? I want your difficult and stubborn cases. I don't care how many have failed to fit your case. I tell you my system is successful on those cases. I have devoted my life's work to this one study. I do nothing else. That's why I succeed. I have investigated all methods and have formulated a better one of my own. I have got the system you want. If you have headaches, weak eyes, cross-eyes, strained eyes and want glasses that are easy and comfortable, call and see me at once. Crossed eyes straightened without drugs or knife by a new discovery.

Dysentery is a dangerous disease but can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine epidemics of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened, it is pleasant.

NEW STALLS ARE LOOMING UP

ROUND HOUSE TORE DOWN ON WEST TO PERMIT CONNECTION.

New Wrecking Crane Sent to This Point—Other Railroad News.

Preparations for connecting the old round house with the new addition to it which will house the mallet engines, took definite shape today when workmen commenced to tear out the west end of the old building in anticipation of making the connecting walls. The foundations and engine pits for the mallet are ready and construction of the walls will commence at once.

Material for the additional round house stalls and for the $160,000 machine and blacksmith shop is being accumulated with much rapidity and it is now but a short time until the building will commence to take shape.

New Crane for This Point.
 A new wrecking crane larger and with a heavier capacity has been sent to this division point to handle the wrecks which may from time to time occur. The old crane had a capacity of 100 tons but the new crane can handle 120 tons. It has gone to Starbuck for use where there is less demand for heavy machinery.

Oil Burners Leaving.
 The advent of oil burners for mountain service was short-lived for already the engines have been returned to the Washington and Sandy divisions and only one is now in service at this place.

Tame Eagles.
 A man living near Tromso, in Norway, is a great lover of wild birds and has succeeded in taming three eagles. He took them on the mountain side while they were young and, according to the London Field, kept them a couple of years in captivity. As their craving for liberty, however, grew stronger and stronger he at last let them loose, but they have settled down in the neighborhood of his home, and when he ascends the height which has become their favorite resort with fish or a newly shot seagull they quickly discover him from afar and come majestically sailing through the air, settling down beside him. Their meal over, they willingly allow him to pet and stroke them before they again make for the rocky islets, but they will not allow a stranger to approach them.

Etiquette.
 The very high sounding word etiquette had a very humble origin. For etiquette meant simply a label. It derived its present meaning from the fact that a Scotch gardener who had laid out the grounds at Versailles for Louis XIV. was much annoyed at the courtiers walking over his newly made paths and at length had labels placed to indicate where they might walk. At first these labels were ignored, but a hint from high quarters that in future the walks of the courtiers must be within the "etiquettes" or labels was promptly attended to. To keep within the "etiquettes" came to mean to do the correct thing.

As It Used to Be.
 Midway is a philosopher in his way. The other evening Mrs. M. gave him a scolding that would have made almost any other man crazy. But Midway said never a word in reply. He only murmured to himself: "And that is the woman I used to hold on my knee and call my little tootsy wootsy!"

Generous.
 First Beggar—What are you doing here, Pete? I thought your stand was on the bridge. Second Beggar—Oh, I gave that to my son as a wedding present. Meggendorf Blatter.
