ALDRICH'S CASE MYSTIFIES POLICE

SENATOR STILL REFUSES TO EXPLAIN DETAILS.

No One Can be Found Who Knows Anything of Supposed Assaulter.

New York, Oct. 22—Despite the usual denial of the state that Aldrich was struck by a vehicle or street car Wednesday night, scores of persons interested in locating such a vehicle were unable to do so. The rumor is more persistent than ever that an assault was committed on the senator. Aldrich is reported comfortable but refused to be interviewed.

The manner in which the senator received a number of abrasions concludes still unexplained. No witnesses reported the accident, nor could anyone be found who had seen the senator assaulted. Street car men who operated the cars where the senator was walking at the time, declared no one was struck.

Importers Give Up.

New York, Oct. 22—Collector of Port Loeb announced that scores of big American importers had confessed that they undervalued goods imported to this country. Government will recover a million dollars from them. Immunity from prosecution will probably be granted those who confessed, though they will be compelled to pay the full financial penalty.

Chines Press Organizes.

Shanghai, Oct. 22—A meeting of publishers of all the leading Chinese daily newspapers of the empire was called here today to complete plans for the organization of a news-gathering system similar to the Associated Press. With the growth of modern spirit in China, the number of daily journals has grown by leaps and bounds, and hardly a week passes without the establishment of a new daily paper somewhere in the empire. Heretofore the press of China has depended upon the efforts of scattered and unorganized correspondents, with the result that many important news events never reach the press. The new Chinese Press Association will be a mutual arrangement, each member supplying the news of his territory and contributing to the cost of the compilation and distribution of news. While the principal object of the association will be to secure and disseminate news of the empire, special correspondents will also be stationed at Tokio, Calcutta, Washington, San Francisco, Paris and London. These correspondents will all be trained Chinese newspaper men, and no foreigners will be employed by the association in any capacity. The headquarters of the association are in this city.

AVIATION MEET CRIPPEN GUILTY AND WILL BE HANGED

TWENTY-SEVEN BIRD MEN ASSEMBLED TO TAKE PART IN BIG AFFAIR.

VAST SUMS IN PRIZES DEATH SENTENCE FOLLOWS

Aerial Stunts Will be Attempted and if Carried Out Will Electrify and Revolutionize the Airplane Records—Slight Accident Marks the Beginning of the Meet This Morning—Great Crowds Present.

Belmont Park, N. Y., Oct. 22—With twenty-seven of the world's bird men competing, the second international aviation meet was started at Belmont Park today. Seventy-two thousand dollars in cash prizes will be given. It is expected many records will be broken. In addition the amount subscribed the aviators will receive seventy per cent of the first $100,000 profits and 40 per cent of the second $100,000.

At noon today the police had cleared the field of thousands so the aviators could get a running start. The principal event will be the international race next Saturday in which three entrants from each nation will fly over a course 7-10 miles.

All of Wright's and Curtis' machines are entered.

The first wreck today was when Aviator Tod Schriever fell 50 feet and wrecked his machine but was himself unhurt, in the trial flight.

Another feature of the meet will be $10,000 Ryan contest prize. To win which they must fly from the field around the Statue of Liberty and back within half an hour without alighting. There is $5,000 for the one who reaches an altitude of more than ten thousand feet. There are many other valuable prizes for aerial stunts.

In the international race a sensation is expected as the Wrights have announced that they will produce a machine nearly twice as fast as anything ever built so far.

Rain put a damper on things this afternoon. The new Curtiss machine was seen for the first time. It is a monoplane and carries eight cylinder engines with an estimated speed of 85 miles an hour.

JURY OUT BUT THIRTY MINUTES IN REACHING VERDICT OF GUILTY OF MURDER.

DEFENSE PLAUSIBLE STORY WAS NOT EFFECTIVE ON JURY—CROWN'S COUNSEL SCORED TRIUMPH IN CLOSING ARGUMENTS—COURT'S INSTRUCTIONS TO THE JURY SUCH AS UPHELD THE CONTENTIONS OF THE CROWN IN ARGUMENT.

London, Oct. 22—Dr. Crippen, stripped by British law of a technical defense and handicapped by his missing wife whose body it was supposed was found in the basement of his home, was found guilty of murder this afternoon, and was sentenced to be hanged, by Lord Chief Justice Alverstone.

A plausible detailed story was told of the disappearance of Mrs. Crippen but it failed to prevent the jury from deliberating more than 30 minutes. In closing his argument Prosecutor Muir said that Crippen's admission that the scar was similar to his wife's was damaging enough to send him to the gallows. The prisoner's attempt to show the body may be some one else's was too fantastic to be believed he said.

Lord Alverstone's instructions to the jurors generally supported Muir's contentions. Crippen fainted several times in the jail and his condition became so depressed that physicians were called.

The court told Crippen he had better make his peace with God. Crippen protested his innocence and probably will appeal the sentence. If not successful he will probably hang November 14 to 17.

Crippen rose briskly to receive sentence as soon as it was passed Alverstone said. "I advise you to entertain no hope of escaping the gallows."

"I still protest my innocence," said Crippen. He fainted and then relapsed into a stupor in which he remained long after he was returned to his cell. Leneve will be brought to trial next Tuesday.

A riot call was sent in and 25 students were arrested and put in jail until midnight.

They will appear in court today.

GERMAN BALLOON LOCATED IN ONTARIO

CREW HAD WALKED MANY MILES TO SMALL TOWN IN INTERIOR OF ONTARIO, CANADA.

AMERICA MAY HAVE WON

Search About to be Instituted for Missing Balloons When One is Located in the Interior—America II Also Heard From Indirectly—Indications Are That the American Entry Has Walked Off With Victory.

New York, Oct. 22—The balloon Azuria with pilot Messner, and his aide Giraudan, landed in an isolated spot in Ontario near the village of Algoma, 800 miles from St. Louis. He landed Wednesday and spent the next two days wandering in the woods without food. Finally he reached Algoma. It is believed the America II has won the race and almost doubled her previous record. Advice from Montreal says a balloon believed to be the America II has been sighted 300 miles from Pogamassing. It is reported the Dusseldorf landed near Pogamassing.

One Balloon in Storm.

Montreal, Oct. 24—A telegram from Pogamassing, Ontario, said one balloon lit at a point fifty miles northeast while another continued toward Hudson Bay in the teeth of a gale going at 55 miles hourly. Relief expeditions were rushed out at once.

Systematic Search Promised.

St. Louis, Oct. 22—Unless something is heard by tomorrow of the missing balloons Dusseldorf, Azuria and American II, a systematic search of every mile of woods of Canada will be instituted. The American revenue cutter today was ordered to prepare to search the great lakes while runners left for the wilderness bordering the Hudson Bay.

Lieutenant Governor Gibson of the province of Ontario is willing to help, and so notified the St. Louis Aero club. Officials are inclined to credit the balloon Germania with the record.

It landed at Coe Coe Cache, 1185 miles straight from this city, while the Helvetia landed at Villa Maria, 1100 miles.

Suffrage Anniversary.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 22—Tomorrow will be the sixtieth anniversary of the opening in this city of the first national convention for women's rights held in the United States. The movement had its inception for two years previous when a state meeting of the friends of equal suffrage was held at Seneca Falls, N. Y., but the Worcester gathering marked the real beginning of the movement as a national influence. Many men and women of prominence took part in the Worcester conference, but the general public and the press ignored the movement, or treated it with ridicule as a mere ephemeral fad of crack-brained enthusiasts. The civil war period did not dampen the ardor of the suffragists, and in 1863, as the result of a project suggested at the Worcester convention, the first petition for woman suffrage was presented to congress by the American Equal Rights association. By 1870 the agitation had gained such force in New England that the Massachusetts Republican convention admitted Lucy Stone and A. Livermore as regularly accredited delegates.

Union Meeting Impossible.

Walla Walla, Oct. 22—The farmer's union meeting yesterday with the railroad officials for the purpose of securing lower rates on wheat shipments resulted in nothing toward a settlement.

EXCITED APPLICANT WANTS TO FILE ON GOVERNMENT LAND A MONTH AHEAD OF TIME TODAY

Washington, Oct. 22—Large tracts of land in Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Oregon, Idaho and Wyoming, most of which were eliminated from the national forests under the executive proclamation of July 1 last, were restored, subject to settlement today, and to entry on Nov. 21 next. Tracts in Colorado and Washington were made subject to entry earlier in the week.

The secretary of the interior also restored to settlement today and to entry on Nov. 21, about 10,000 acres in the Great Falls, Mont., land district, formerly withdrawn.

Another large tract is in Unita county, Wyoming, consisting of 5,840 acres of the Targhee National Forest. A tract of 54,590 acres in the same national forest, but located in Fremont county, Idaho, becomes subject to settlement under the homestead laws on Nov. 2. On the same date lands will be restored in the Beaver Head National Forest, to the amount of nearly 100,000 acres, located in Madison and Beaver Head counties, Montana.

Even with all the publicity given the opening in Eastern Oregon, one man appeared at the land office today in great haste and wanted to file. When told that he had to live a month on his land and then file, he hurried off to Wallowa county on the morning train.

Reports from Enterprise, Joseph and Wallowa this afternoon say this morning saw a great exodus from these towns to remote corners of the county where thousands of acres of government land lies and there commenced a month of rural life prior to the opening here a month from today. As to the exact number located in that county today there is no definite information at hand. It is nevertheless a fact that men and women have been heading in for Wallowa county for three weeks and just how many there are remains for the month following November 22 to disclose.
