

SOME OLD LINE ODD FELLOWS OF DEMOCRATS IN THE CITY

JOHN MANNING, CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS HERE TODAY.

Leaves for Baker Tonight Where Senator Chamberlain Will Join Him.

Determined to get and see the voters with the probable hope that his vote will appear as a tribute to his citizenship of the district, even though chances of election are very slim, John Manning, the Democratic nominee for congress, is in La Grande today making acquaintances with the voters and incidentally telling them what to expect if he is elected to the lower house.

Mr. Manning is known to many La Grande people and his visit today is a pleasure to his personal friends, many of whom are on the Republican side of the fence and will not vote for a democratic congressman to sit at Washington.

John H. Stevenson, an old time newspaper man of Portland, is with Mr. Manning and Stevenson dopes out the campaign forecast in a manner that shows loyalty to his candidate, although his judgment might be questioned.

They leave tonight for Baker City to spend Sunday and on Monday Senator George E. Chamberlain will meet them and the campaign of the Second district will be on from a democratic viewpoint.

Two weeks remain for all candidates to pound the bushes. This is some time and apparently Oregon will witness the heaviest effort on the part of democracy to induce the people to accept its promises that has ever been made in the state.

In the Second district the campaign for West for governor is taking place among democrats, and it is reported that Sam White of Portland and a number of other stump speakers will get out for Manning in a few days.

First Methodist Episcopal Church.

J. D. Gilliam, D. D., Pastor. Sunday school 9:45; F. H. Green, supt. Preaching 11 a. m. by Pastor. The choir and music now are in the hands of Mrs. Laura Green Wells and Miss Ivy Long. That fact assures success on that line.

On account of the funeral of Mr. Souder, there will be no services at Island City Sunday afternoon.

Miss Farrar to Sing.

Berlin, Oct. 22—Miss Geraldine will sing at the celebration in the Imperial palace tonight in honor of Empress Augusta Victoria's birthday.

SPEND ONLY ENOUGH TIME HERE TO EAT BREAKFAST.

Have Been Attending Grand Lodge at Sandpoint and are Returning.

Southern Idaho Odd Fellows who have been attending the grand lodge at Sandpoint, Idaho, passed through the city this morning in a special train. This is the same crowd as was entertained here a week ago by local Odd Fellows but today the visitors were not given time for any entertainment and when they had breakfasted at the various hotels and restaurants, they continued their journey home to Southern Idaho.

There were about 200 in the party.

SOUNDER FUNERAL TOMORROW.

Former Resident of La Grande and Mason Will be Buried Sunday.

Samuel J. Souder was born in Shelby county, Ohio, July 29, 1836. In early years he emigrated to Iowa and remained there until 1862 when he came to the Grande Ronde valley among the sturdy lot of pioneers who first settled this part of the country. In 1877 he married Miss Catherine Lane who with their only child, William, survives him; their home is at 1907 First street.

Mr. Souder was an invalid during the last years of his life, having never recovered from a fall he sustained one morning on his way to the Methodist Episcopal church where he worshipped.

He was the first Sunday school superintendent, and organized the Sunday-school in 1862 in South La Grande. He was also the first undertaker the city had.

He was 74 years of age at the time of his death. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 3 o'clock from the Methodist Episcopal church under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity to which he belonged for many years.

SOCIETY

The coming week is an important one to local women's clubs. The delegates from the Lyle Tuesday Musicals and the Neighborhood club leave to attend the convention at The Dalles the coming week. Mrs. Turner Oliver, who is first vice president of the state federation will not be able to attend it is believed, as her plans have been changed this week. However, those who will likely be present are Mrs. Chester P. Newlin and Mrs. A. L. Richardson, regulars, Mrs. C. H. Upton and Mrs. E. C. Moore, alternates for the Musicals; Mrs. E. Polack and Mrs. A. T. Hill, regulars, and Mrs. Bidwell and Mrs. Kiddle, alternates for the neighborhood club. The only La Grande delegate to appear on the program during the three days' session is Mrs. A. L. Richardson who is to sing during the program of the federation.

Invitations—and, allow us to say, they are unique—are out announcing what is going to be the elite ball of the fall season, when on Hallowe'en, October 31, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Byrkit, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Donahue, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Conkey, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Scroggin, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Rumble, Doctor and Mrs. W. D. McMillan and Dr. and Mrs. N. Millitor will be hosts and hostesses at a formal ball at the Elks' auditorium. Other Hallowe'en social features will be overshadowed by this important function. The invitations themselves are keenly designed.

Miss Marjorie McCall entertained Friday afternoon complimentary to her sisters, Mrs. C. R. Seltz and Mrs. Archie Bacon. Informality blending with sewing formed the entertainment. A delicious two-course luncheon was served during the afternoon. The guests were Mrs. H. M. Bay, Mrs. Oscar Jackson, Mrs. Herman Siegrist, Mrs. Hugh McCall, Mrs. C. B. Clarke, Mrs. Lloyd Scriber, Mrs. C. R. Seltz, Mrs. Archie Bacon and Miss Etta Foley. The guests of honor leave soon for their respective homes, which are Eugene for Mrs. Seltz and Plains, Montana for Mrs. Bacon.

Invitations are out for another of those jolly Elks' dancing parties next Tuesday evening. These parties are going to be frequent occurrences during the winter and ladies who have Elk husbands, fathers or "sweethearts" are highly elated at the announcement of a long string of these dances.

A very interesting meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held last Thursday at the Methodist parsonage when the local president, Mrs. Dora Thornton reported in detail the minutes of the state convention recently held at Salem. Following the business session a very delightful luncheon was served the guests. The W. C. T. U. is made of active members and while the business meetings are held regularly social features also entered into the gatherings with the result that each meeting is well attended and invariably full of interest.

Cards are out announcing the marriage at Reedley, California, November 8, of Miss Maude Mallory, formerly of La Grande and a Mr. Howell, an attorney of Reedley. Miss Mallory is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Mallory, sister of the Davis brothers of Union, and is a young lady of pleasing manner and unusual attainments, a graduate of Whitman college and of literary and musical attainments. Miss Mallory and her mother moved to California from La Grande about two years ago.

Miss Laura Holm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holm of Seattle and a sister of Mrs. Edna Swart of this city, and George Hibberd, the popular agent of the American Express company in this city, were married in Portland today and will be at home in La Grande to their host of friends about the middle of the week. The wedding came as a surprise to their friends here, the couple stealing a clever march. Unfortunately the bride's mother is not able to attend on account of illness. The bride's father however was present.

One of the few weddings of the week was that of George L. Golay and Edith Davis, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Rev. Ford Ellis. Mr. Ellis was the officiating minister. Mr. Golay and his bride are residents of Cove where the groom has a profitable fruit growing business.

This week's social activities centered about the Billiken club dancing party last Tuesday evening at the Elks' auditorium. A half hundred dancers were guests to the club and enjoyed every minute of the dance. Good music is always a feature of the Billiken dances.

An event that will assume social proportions next week—among the men folks—is the Elks' stag party Thursday night when several esteemed Elks from Elgin and all of Walloway county will be Bills on the spot around the clam bake table.

Mrs. Jay Van Buren entertained the Five Hundred club this week. Mrs. Harry Ruby of Golden Colorado, won the honors.

An impromptu mock trial last evening gave the guests at the M. P. Mendelsohn home on Washington avenue, assembled in honor of Miss Lillian Newman of San Francisco, an evening of unique entertainment and "heaps" of mirth. Miss Newman's friends carried the principal roles in the trial, with Miss Gladys Oesterling suing for divorce from Frank Earls, alleging non-support. Despite a heated series of arguments and sensational testimony, the jury "hung." Harold Grady was prosecuting attorney and George H. Currey counsel for defense and the case was heard before Low Zundel as the officiating magistrate. A delicious three course luncheon followed the mock trial and other parlor amusements. The guests were: Misses May Nell, Zoe Bragg, Mary Pennington, Ethel Wright, Lillian Baker, Wilma Rinehart, Gladys Oesterling, Cecil Lilly, Olive Massee, Jeanette Smith, Runa Bacon and Miss Simpson of Portland; Messrs. Hal Bohenkamp, Stanley Carpy, Joe Ingie, Merlin Battley, Russell Ralston, Lee Reynolds, George Kerr, Chas. Harding, Frank Earls, Frank Ralston, Clarence Garrity, Grover Grimmert, Low Zundel, George Currey, Roy Currey and Harold Grady. Miss Cecil Lilly won first prize and Frank Ralston second in a contest for carrying peanuts.

Mrs. Oscar Jackson entertained the La Jaunesse club last Thursday evening in an informal way. A two-course luncheon was served. Mrs. C. B. Clarke and Mrs. C. R. Seltz of Eugene were out-of-the-club guests.

The La Grande German Verein meets tomorrow at 2 o'clock and all Germans in the city are urged to attend. The only requirement is that the guests talk German for that is the language that goes.

Dysentery is a dangerous disease but can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine epidemics of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened, it is pleasant to take.
