PERSONALS

John Wilson is in Union today transacting business matters.

Lee Deffel, an insurance man of Boise, spent yesterday in the city transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hibberd have returned from Portland where they were married last week.

S. A. Dray an old-time resident of La Grande now living at Goldfield, is in the city visiting friends.

L. A. Stoop of Elgin, returned from Shaniko today where he had been looking after business matters.

J. E. Thomas and wife of Elgin spent Sunday in the city, stopping at the Sommer.

Dan Hines, the old time La-Grande boy, representing Heinz pickles, Sunday at the Foley.

Edward Payne and family of Walla Walla, were staying at the Sommer yesterday.

J. H. Remington and Louis Stecker of Monmouth, were Sommer hotel visitors over Sunday.

Dr. A. F. Foley, a prominent capitalist of Enterprise, spent yesterday in the city, transacting business matters.

W. C. Calder and wife of Baker City are guests at the Foley. Mr. Calder is heavily interested in timber lands in Oregon.

Among the prominent traveling men who spent Sunday at the Foley, were O. J. Olson, C. W. T. Koch, J. M. Chamberlain, W. F. Campbell, C. A. Bengaman and Chas. H. Dodd

Mrs. Homer Littleton registered at the Foley last night. Mrs. Littleton is returning from Montana where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Grant, wife of Engineer Grant, formerly of this city.

F. J. Cox of Chicago, who talks Zenno gum is making a specialty trip with O. H. Nicoll, who is in this territory for J. W. Matchie Candy Co. of Portland. They were registered at the Foley.

Mrs. Peter Beaver left this morning for Vancouver, Wash., in answer to a message stating that one of Mr. Thompson's children had died. Mr. Thompson was formerly an engineer out of La Grande.

Let us be thankful that La Grande's municipal election does not occur with the state and county election. Baker City is wrestling with that problem and it proves to be more than any community wants at one time.

C. M. Lockwood, an abstractor of Enterprise, has accepted a position with the La Grande Investment Co. He will move his family to La Grande and make this his future home. Mr. Lockwood was county clerk at Enterprise and later conducted an abstract office.

C. J. Winchell, representing the Shoe company, spent Sunday at the Foley. Mr. Winchell speaking of La Grande says that nothing can stop the growth of this city and surrounding country. N. K. West is the sole agent for this high grade line of shoes.

G. M. Krist, representing Swift & Co. was in the city this morning. He is shipping a consignment of nine car loads of hogs from Kearney, Neb., to Portland, and the shipment was unloaded to feed in the local stockyards. Mr. Krist affirms that in a territory described by a radius of twenty-five miles with Keney as the center, ships a million and a half dollars' worth of hogs to the coast each year.

Dysentery is a dangerous disease but can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine epidemics of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened, it is pleasant to take.

A SHREWD SHOPPER.

The Little Play by Which She Won Attentive Service.

"Chicago people certainly have the knack of getting on," a shopper said. "In the suit department of a big store I met a Chicago woman who had been in New York less than a week. She said she wasn't buying anything; had just come to get the lay of the land. In the process of getting it she stopped a cashgirl and said: "Is that Miss Blake selling white linen skirts to that fat woman? I understand you have a Miss Blake in the department." "No; that is Miss Barton," said the cashgirl.

"The Chicago woman wrote the name in her address book. Then she showed me the names of saleswomen in several other stores.

"This is only a preliminary to real shopping," she said. "It pays to take the extra trouble. If I expect to buy more than $5 worth of anything at a strange store I learn beforehand the name of the saleswoman whose looks I like best. Then when I go back to buy I can say, as I shall do here tomorrow, 'I would like Miss Barton to wait on me,' and, although Miss Barton has never set eyes on me, the fact that I can call her name gives her the impression that she must have sold me a $100 dress at some time, and I get twice as good service as I would get if I knew nobody by name."—New York Sun.

THE HOPEFUL ATTITUDE.

It Helps One in Striving to Realize His Ambition.

There is a tremendous power in the habit of expectancy, the conviction that we shall realize our ambition, that our dreams shall come true, says Orison Swett Marden in Success Magazine. There is no uplifting habit like that of carrying an expectant, hopeful attitude, of expecting that our best yearnings will be matched with realities; that things are going to turn out well and not ill; that we are going to succeed; that, no matter what may or may not happen, we are going to be happy.

There is nothing else so helpful as the carrying of this optimistic, expectant attitude—the attitude which always looks for and expects the best, the highest, the happiest—and never allowing oneself to get into the pessimistic, discouraged mood.

Believe with all your heart that you will do what you were made to do. Never for an instant harbor a doubt of this. Drive it out of your mind if it seeks an entrance. Entertain only the friend thoughts or ideals of the thing you are bound to achieve. Reject all thought enemies, all discouraging moods—everything which would even suggest failure or unhappiness.

Fear of Revenge.

"Why are you crying, my little man?" "Cos I don't want to go to school." "But why not?" "Cos sister jilted the schoolmaster last night!"—London Opinion.

Advertising.

Adversity has been the means of making many men famous, but advertising is still in the lead.—Pittsburg Press.

The feet lose their point when he who makes it is the first to laugh.—Schiller

The Soft Answer.

"Ugh, I'm going out of this, and you won't see me again until the day of judgment."

She (sweetly, getting the last word as usual)—All right, dear, and if you aren't feeling in a better temper please let it be well on in the afternoon.—London Saturday Review.

Sympathetic Admiration.

Drinks—So you enjoyed the circus? Whisk—Yes; I was particularly interested in the juggler. I'll bet that man could get the number of bundles from a street car to the train without dropping one of them.—St. Louis Times.
